SCHEDULE NOTES

• Matches against 11 teams that competed in the 2017 NCAA Tournament, including seven teams ranked in the final AVCA Top 25 Coaches Poll, highlight the 2018 schedule. This year's slate also features matchups against 11 opponents that recorded 20 or more wins during the 2017 season.

• In the third weekend of the season, the Nittany Lions will head to Stanford, California, for the Big Ten/Pac-12 Challenge. Penn State will play Stanford and Oregon. Stanford and Penn State have met at least once over the last eight seasons. Penn State hasn't faced Oregon since the 2012 season.

• Penn State's nonconference slate is highlighted by back-to-back home weekend tournaments, with the Nittany Lions hosting Eastern Kentucky, UMBC and Navy opening weekend, and then hosting Temple and Texas A&M the second weekend. On Sept. 1, the Nittany Lions will honor head coach Russ Rose for his 40 seasons at the helm of the blue and white.

• Penn State owns a 621-121-1 (.836) record against its 2018 opponents, including a 473-66 (.878) mark in Big Ten matches since joining the conference in 1991. The Nittany Lions have a 559-106 (.839) mark all-time against current Big Ten opponents.

• Oregon and Nebraska are the only two teams on the schedule to have a winning record over the Nittany Lions. Oregon holds a 2-1 advantage over Penn State, while Nebraska has a 21-10 all-time record versus the Nittany Lions.

2018 OUTLOOK

Entering his 40th year at the helm of the storied program, Penn State women's volleyball head coach Russ Rose returns to lead the Nittany Lions for the 2018 season.

Penn State welcomes 10 newcomers to the Big Ten, after losing eight seniors, including five All-American honorees. The Nittany Lions will rely on its returners to educate the 10 newcomers on the competitiveness of the Big Ten.

Eleven of the 19 All-Big Ten Team honorees return to their respective squads for 2018.

"The conference has more than established itself as the premier conference in the country over the last half a dozen years. I'd expect nothing different going into this season," Rose commented. "I think many teams are returning key players and quality players at key positions certainly have some teams feeling way more confident coming into the season. Then some of the teams are looking to replace many players like we are."

"Nebraska, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois all have a solid core of players coming back. Michigan and Purdue also have a number of key players returning. I think the conference itself is, as always, going to be a challenge for everyone on the road and teams are going to have to play especially well at home."

The returners Penn State will depend on include 2017 AVCA second-team All-American Kendall White, Bryanna Weiskircher, Tori Gorrell and Nia Reed, who all saw significant time in 2017. The Nittany Lions also return Keeton Holcomb, Emily Sciorra and Kristin Krause, who all saw time at defensive specialist.

The Nittany Lions will add some experience with the addition of transfers Taylor Leath and Bayleigh Hoffman. Leath joins the Nittany Lions after graduating from the University of North Carolina, where she spent four years and played for three. Hoffman played two seasons at the University of Louisiana Monroe and comes to Penn State for her final season of eligibility as well.

Penn State looks to fill holes with the departure of AVCA All-Americans Simone Lee, Haleigh Washington, Ali Frantti, Abby Detering and Heidi Thelen, as well as the graduation of Lainy Pierce, Clare Powers and Jennifer Halterman.
The coaching staff will look for the eight incoming freshmen including Gabby Blossom, Allyson Cathey, Serena Gray, Jenna Hampton, Brooklynn Hill, Kaitlyn Hord, Jonni Parker and Amanda Phegley to step in.

"Being a freshman isn't a death sentence. There are times older players beat out younger players because of their knowledge, their confidence and their ability to handle distraction, but there are also times where younger people, because of their youth and excitement, can overcome experience."

The coaching staff itself has a fresh look as well. Rose welcomed back Dennis Hohenshelt, the Nittany Lions' volunteer assistant in 2017, who also served in an assistant coach role from 2006-11. Another addition at assistant coach is Penn State alum Katie Schumacher-Cawley. Schumacher-Cawley graduated in 2002 and was a member of the program's first-ever national title squad in 1999. The Nittany Lions also welcome Virginia Pham at the Director of Operations position and Chris Rose at the Volunteer coach position.

SETTERS

Penn State returns fifth-year senior Bryanna Weiskircher and adds freshman Gabby Blossom, who joined the Nittany Lions for the spring season, as well as the addition of Jonni Parker.

Weiskircher brings a wealth of experience, playing in 94 matches, with 2,265 assists, which is good for eighth in Penn State career totals. In 2017, she played three rotations at setter in the Nittany Lions' 6-2 offense. In 2015, Weiskircher also gained experience running a 5-1 offense.

Blossom brings in an attitude of success from her prep career. She was the 2018 Andi Collins Award winner and earned the 2017-18 Missouri Gatorade Player of the Year. She led her high school squad to the 2017 Class 4 State Championship.

"Bryanna certainly has the most experience having competed in both a 5-1 and 6-2 offense. I think that there's a good likelihood that she'll continue to fall in those positions. She's certainly our best server and I know she has a good head for the game and knows the expectations of the program since she has been here for four seasons."

Bryanna Weiskircher

"Gabby was here and training in the spring, and she was here through the summertime. She plays hard, and our team enjoys playing with her, for her. I expect her to find opportunities to be on the floor as well."

"Jonni has experience as well at the setter position, as she led her club team to back-to-back championship matches in a 6-2 system."

MIDDLE BLOCKERS

Penn State returns veteran middle blocker Tori Gorrell while adding freshmen Serena Gray, Kaitlyn Hord, and Amanda Phegley.

Gorrell, who enters her fourth season with the program, has played in 68 matches over the last two seasons. She tallied 342 kills and improved her hitting percentage from .360 in her redshirt freshman season to .453 in her redshirt sophomore season. She has also added 233 blocks to her name.

"Tori has developed well over the two seasons that she's played. She continues to make great strides as a player. She's certainly going to be the most comfortable playing at this level heading into preseason."

Gray and Hord both were listed in the top five for incoming freshmen, with Hord coming in at No. 3 and Gray at No. 5. Both have had experience with the USA Youth National Team. Phegley also enjoyed prep success and was 2017 Under Armour second-team All-American.

"Serena has been a real pleasant surprise at how well and how high she plays the game. She's going to be a challenge for opponents to compete with at the net for sure."

"Kaitlyn is our best natural blocker, and at times, a strong attacker. She might be challenged more so out of the gate by the physical nature of college volleyball and the demands of the Big Ten. There are also times where she's physically able to do things that we haven't had blockers do in a long time because she's up so high, and fast, she's athletic and has a relaxed approach to how she plays. She's a very calm individual, yet a competitive player who plays the game hard."

"Amanda has a strong arm and is out best athlete off of one foot. I see her splitting time at both the middle and right side positions as we try to formulate our line-up."

Tori Gorrell

PINS

The Nittany Lions look to replace All-Americans, and 1,000-kill club members Simone Lee and Ali Frantti on the outside, as well as, All-Americans Heidi Thelen and Abby Detering on the right side.

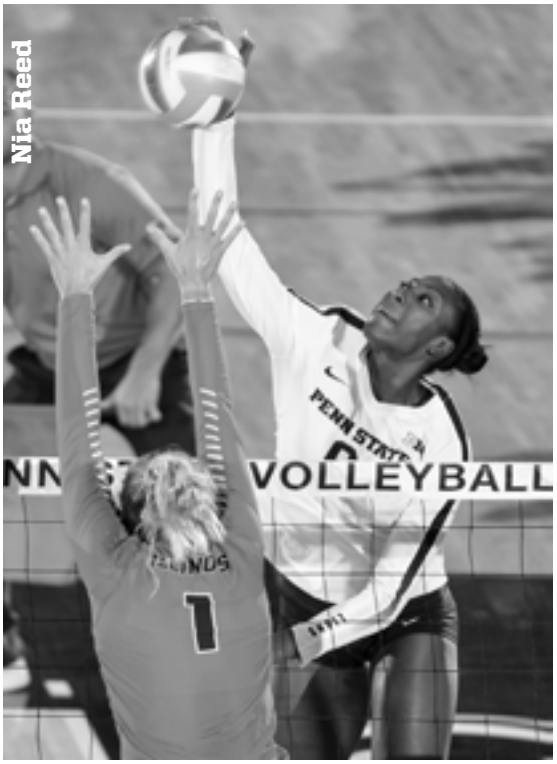
Nia Reed returns for her fifth season after an increased role in 2017. Reed has seen action in 50 matches in her career, with 25 coming in her redshirt junior campaign. She has totaled 96 career kills and 32 career blocks. She put down a career-best 11 kills on .421 hitting percentage against Wisconsin last season.

"Nia has had some flashes where she came in and played some great matches offensively. She certainly has improved year-by-year, and we're hoping that she'll continue to make great contributions in this her senior campaign."

While it may not be Penn State-specific experience, the addition of Taylor Leath on the outside provides the Nittany Lions with a wealth of knowledge as a six-rotation player. Leath spent the last four seasons, including a redshirt campaign, at the University of North Carolina and served as a team captain. She also earned all-conference and All-America honors while she was there. She has 928 career kills, 624 digs and 171 blocks.

Penn State also adds freshman Allyson Cathey, an outside from New Albany, Indiana. She logged 1,978 kills on a .373 hitting percentage, added 296 blocks, 843 digs and 129 service aces in her prep career.

"Taylor's the most experienced player having played for three seasons at North Carolina. North Carolina is a really fine program, and while she was there, they were playing at a high level, and she was a major contributor. Although she didn't play Big Ten level of play week in and week out, North Carolina played good teams and had success against good teams. I think her experience and mature disposition places her ahead of the others."



Nia Reed

"Allison Cathey has demonstrated that she competes hard and she's has a good arm. She's a really good blocker for her age."

On the opposite, Penn State will have a new face as both Amanda Phegley and Jonni Parker have been tabbed as potential starting candidates.

"Jonni has great experience as a six-rotation player, who has hit and set. I see her making contributions in a variety of ways, from both the front and back row."

DEFENSIVE SPECIALIST/LIBERO

Penn State returns AVCA second-team All-American Kendall White at libero, while also bringing back Emily Sciorra and Kristin Krause.

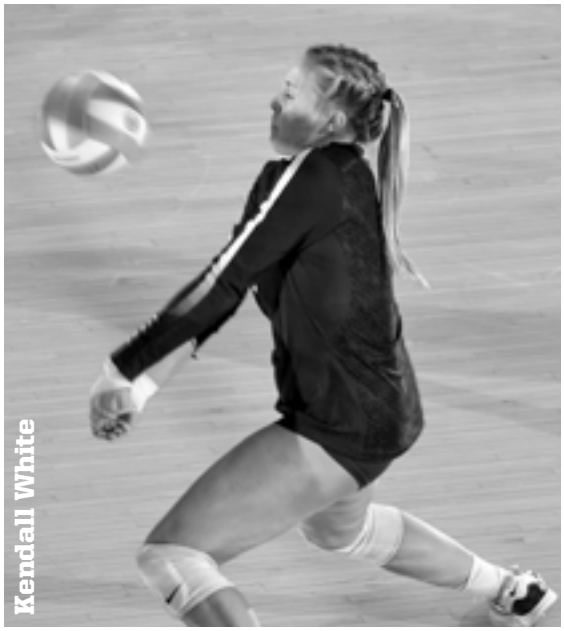
New faces will also be added to the slew of back row players as Bayleigh Hoffman, Jenna Hampton and Brooklynn Hill join the squad.

White was the first libero to earn All-America status for Penn State since 2005 when Kaleena Walters earned a place on the honorable mention team. White also earned All-Big Ten honors and was the only conference libero to do so. She led the team with 462 digs, good for 3.76 per set.

Sciorra and Krause each made appearances throughout the season.

Hampton comes in as a highly-touted back row player, and Hoffman brings in a leadership aspect as an upperclassman. Hill will also provide a fresh look to the back row as well.

"Kendall and Jenna are the two people who are likely competing for the libero spot. Whoever earns it, and then the second will be the first back row sub. They play hard, Kendall's experience is superior to Jenna's, but Jenna has great speed and a great feel for the game and has an aggressive attitude about going for the ball."



Kendall White

"Brooklyn has been a pleasant surprise. She will be able to make great contributions. Emily is a streaky player, has great speed and can make plays because of that speed. Kristin and Bayleigh both have a terrific volleyball IQ and read the game well."

CLOSING THOUGHTS

"There is a changing of the guard sometimes. I don't know how all of these people are going to handle certain things because we've never had a game where they're playing and working together. But we're hoping for that, and that's certainly going to be our goal. Why can't it be young kids playing well together and competing with veteran teams?"

"I like how hard they play and the question will be how do they handle the man challenges offered by the teams in the Big Ten."

It's been four decades since Russ Rose arrived on campus in Happy Valley. Entering his 40th season at the helm of the Penn State women's volleyball, his name has become synonymous with the pride and tradition of the storied program. The leader of arguably the nation's most elite women's volleyball program, his record-setting seven NCAA national titles and 17 Big Ten championships speak directly to the confidence and character he's passed along throughout his career.

Few have come close to matching Rose's impressive win total, as he's collected victories at a staggering pace. Having never posted less than 22 wins in a season, his 1,246 career wins rank first all-time among NCAA DI head coaches.

As each year passes, his list of accomplishments continue to swell, but a quick snapshot of his legendary tenure might read something like this: The leader of a women's volleyball powerhouse who has kept his program among the nation's elite for 40 years, amassing a stunning career record of 1,246-198. He has guided his teams to a record-setting seven NCAA titles, including an unprecedented four consecutive championships from 2007-10. Along with 17 Big Ten titles, his program is one of only two women's volleyball schools to compete in all 37 NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball National Championship tournaments. He has produced multiple Olympians, four AVCA National Players of the Year, 14 Big Ten Conference Players of the Year and at least one AVCA All-American in 38-of-39 seasons. His student-athletes excel in the classroom as well, with an outstanding 191 Academic All-Big Ten selections and 12 Academic All-Americans, who have earned 19 selections.

>> HE PREFERS NOT FOCUS ON PERSONAL ACCOLADES

Rose is the first to tell anyone who asks that he prefers to place the focus on the student-athlete, rather than his own personal accolades. As both a coach and an educator, Rose's impact at Penn State runs much deeper than women's volleyball. He teaches a yearly course in coaching ethics that regularly meets capacity each fall. He has also opened up several cultural opportunities for his student-athletes, taking his teams on five foreign trips to five different countries in the last 17 years.

>> AMONG THE ELITE: THE WINNINGEST DI COACH OF ALL TIME

It seemed only fitting that Rose's 1,000th career victory came against Hawaii's Dave Shoji, who was the only other active DI head coach to reach the milestone mark. It was December 18, 2009 when the top-ranked Nittany Lions advanced to the NCAA National Championship match with a 3-1 win against the No. 12 Rainbow Warriors. Victory number 1,001 came just two days later as Rose guided Penn State to its third consecutive National Championship with a thrilling come-from-behind five-set victory against No. 2 Texas.

Another 132 wins later, Rose entered the fourth week of the 2014 season just one win shy of tying Shoji for first place on the list of winningest active Division I head coaches with 1,132 victories. After a 4-0 weekend at home, he moved into first place, ahead of Shoji with 1,136 career wins. The two went back and forth throughout the season, but Penn State's run to its seventh National Championship in 2014 vaulted Rose 11 wins ahead of Shoji, placing him firmly atop the active Division I career standings at the conclusion of the season.

Prior to topping the list of Division I winningest active coaches by victories, his .861 career winning clip ranked first on the percentage chart for several years. Now at the top of both lists, he's one of just two active NCAA Division I coaches to amass more than 1,200 career wins and one of four active coaches across all three divisions to join the 1,000 victories club.

>> HE'S WON SEVEN NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

After reaching the NCAA title match for two consecutive seasons from 1997-98, Penn State swept past top-ranked Stanford in the 1999 national final to earn the program's first NCAA Championship. It had been seven years since the Nittany Lions reached the field of final four teams when Penn State arrived in Sacramento, California for the 2007 national semifinals. Having already won their fifth consecutive Big Ten title with a perfect 20-0 mark in conference play, Penn State's group of four AVCA All-Americans helped the Nittany Lions to a thrilling five-set victory against Stanford for the program's second NCAA National Championship crown.

Rose's Nittany Lions improved upon 2007's result the very next season, winning their third national title to become the sixth women's volleyball program to win back-to-back championships and the fourth team to win it with an undefeated record. The 2008 team featured an entire starting front row of AVCA All-Americans, including National Player of the Year, Nicole Fawcett, who helped Penn State to a yet another perfect 38-0 record.

The Nittany Lions had won a record-breaking 111 consecutive sets on their way to the title before entering 2009 on a NCAA record-breaking 64-match winning streak. Penn State had set the scene once again in 2009 with another 20-0 record in conference play, helped out by four returning All-Americans in Megan Hodge, Alisha Glass, Arielle Wilson and Blair Brown.

Back-to-back national titles proved not enough for the Nittany Lions, who became the first team in Division I women's volleyball history to win three in a row with a come-from-behind triumph against No. 2 Texas in the 2009 national final. Along the way, Rose guided Penn State to a 38-0 record for the second-straight season, helping the team extend its record-breaking winning streak to 102-consecutive matches, a feat that has never been accomplished by any other team in NCAA women's volleyball history. He also mentored Hodge to AVCA National Player of the Year honors.

Rose was inducted into the AVCA Hall of Fame, held in conjunction with the 2007 NCAA National Championship in Sacramento, California.

Aside from those who believed Penn State's luck had run out, the Nittany Lions were unfazed and began a quest for a fourth-straight NCAA National Championship in 2010. In an unfortunate turn of events early in the season, Penn State's record-breaking winning streak came to an end at 109 consecutive matches. Stanford, the last team to defeat PSU in 2007, upended the Nittany Lions September 11, 2010 in the Nike Big Four Classic.

The Nittany Lions regrouped and won their eighth-straight and 14th overall Big Ten title to earn an automatic berth to NCAA Tournament. Proving unstoppable through tournament play, Penn State stormed past Texas in the national semifinal before capturing a 3-0 win against No. 8 California for an unprecedented fourth consecutive crown.

Just two seasons passed before the Nittany Lions were back in the NCAA final match, this time on the heels of their 16th Big Ten title in program history. Penn State was taking on fellow conference opponent Wisconsin in the first-ever all Big Ten title match in 2013. Penn State held off the Badgers in four sets to earn the program's sixth NCAA National Championship. Seniors Deja McClendon, Ariel Scott, Katie Slay and Maddie Martin rounded out their careers with two NCAA National Championships and a total of 10 AVCA All-America honors between the four of them.

With such key departures, many counted the Nittany Lions out of contention for the 2014 NCAA National Championship. Led by AVCA DI National Player of the Year Micha Hancock, the Nittany Lions pushed past top-ranked Stanford in the national semifinal before sweeping BYU to win its seventh NCAA National Championship.

Penn State's seven NCAA national championships stand alone as the most of any women's volleyball program in history. With Rose at the helm of the program for all seven titles, he's the only Division I head coach in NCAA women's volleyball history to collect seven crowns at one school.

>> HE'S A GREAT DANCER

The Nittany Lions are one of only two NCAA Division I women's volleyball programs to compete in all 37 NCAA Championship postseason tournaments since 1981. In tournament play, the Nittany Lions own a 98-30 all-time record, having made 13 appearances in the final four.

Since 2007, Penn State has made more appearances in the NCAA national semifinals than any other program. PSU has participated in nine of the last 11 final fours.

In 2014, Penn State's renowned Berkey Creamery unveiled a new "Hall of Fame" ice cream flavor, Russ "digs" Roseberry in honor of Coach Rose.

Having never lost a first round matchup, the Nittany Lions are regular contenders in the later rounds of the event. Rose has guided his tournament teams to a total of 10 appearances in the NCAA national final. In the 2014, NCAA national final, Penn State captured a straight-set victory against BYU for its sixth NCAA national championship in a span of eight years. PSU has not lost an NCAA title match since 1998. The BYU victory also marked the third time in history Penn State swept its national final opponent.

>> BY THE NUMBERS

Among all the victories, honors, title and awards, perhaps one of the most astounding set of numbers is Penn State's impressive home court record at Rec Hall. Rose has guided his teams to a total of 17 undefeated regular-season slates at home. The Nittany Lions have also put together a combined home court record of 349-17 across all 40 years of women's volleyball at Penn State, including a 278-23 record in home matches against current Big Ten opponents under the direction of Rose. Only one current Big Ten school has been able to top Penn State more than three times at home since joining the conference in 1991.

To date, Rose has guided his teams to no less than 22 wins per year, while also earning 30 or more wins in 27 seasons. Averaging it out, Rose's teams win 32.2 matches per year, while surrendering less than six losses in a single season (5).

Rose's year-end finishes include: 37 consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament, wins in every single first round matchup, 10 national final appearances, 12 trips to the national semifinals and seven National Championships. In conference action, he guided his teams to eight consecutive Atlantic 10 championships from 1983-90, while also earning 17 Big Ten titles since joining the league in 1991.

>> COACHING HONORS

Across his tenure as head coach, Rose has been honored with a plethora of coaching awards. Most recently, Rose was honored as both the AVCA Division I National Coach of the Year and the Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2013 and awarded the Volleyball Magazine Coach of the Year honor in 2014. Those awards were not the first for Rose, who's earned National Coach of the Year honors five times and Big Ten Coach of the Year laurels on 15 occasions. Rose has also earned both national and conference Coach of the Year awards three times during his career at Penn State.

In 2007, Rose was one of three coaches inducted into the America Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Hall of Fame. In the same year, he was also honored as the AVCA DI National Coach of the Year, the AVCA Mideast Region Coach of the Year and the Big Ten Coach of The Year. In 2008, Rose repeated with the same trio of prestigious honors.

From 2005-10, Rose earned six consecutive Big Ten Coach of the Year awards, while also earning the back-to-back national recognition in 2007 and 2008. In the last 10 years, he's been voted the Big Ten Coach of the Year eight times, receiving two-straight selections from 2012-13. Additionally, Rose has earned AVCA Regional Coach of the Year honors a total of 11 times.

Prior to the Big Ten Conference, Rose earned Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year honors six times, while guiding his teams to eight consecutive championships. In seven seasons of round-robin play, the Nittany Lions never lost a conference match, putting together a string of 49 consecutive wins before heading into the Big Ten Conference in 1991.

>> HE HAS AN ICE CREAM FLAVOR

In 2014, Penn State's renowned Berkey Creamery unveiled a new "Hall of Fame" ice cream flavor named after Rose. The flavor, Russ "digs" Roseberry, joins the creamery's lineup of "Hall of Fame" permanent flavors, which pay tribute to Penn State people and institutions that have had significant impact on the university and wider community.

The ice cream variety is made with black raspberry puree, whole strawberries, red raspberry sauce and Wilbur's chocolate in a strawberry base. The addition of Rose's flavor marked the first time in more than 20 years that the Berkey Creamery has released a "Hall of Fame" flavor, with the last release being "Peachy Paterno" in honor of Joe Paterno.

>> INTERNATIONAL INVOLVEMENT & OTHER NOTABLE AWARDS

Throughout his career, Rose has been called upon to share his expertise with the coaches and players who represent the United States in international competition. Rose served as head coach of the United States men's team, which won the bronze medal at the 1985 Maccabiah Games, and the United States women's silver medal team in the 1981 Maccabiah Games. He won bronze medals as an assistant coach of the women's team in the 1982 National Sports Festival and as the East women's head coach at the 1983 Festival.

In 1989, he was an assistant coach with the United States men's national team for an exhibition series with Canada and the Soviet Union.

In 1990, Rose worked with members of the men's national and developmental teams during training camp in San Diego. In 1993, he assisted in the U.S. men's matches with Canada and the women's team against China. He also assisted the U.S. men as they prepared for the 2000 Olympics in Sydney.

In the summer of 2002, Rose assisted the U.S. men's team on a 13-day tour of Italy where they competed against the world's top teams, including Brazil, Italy, Yugoslavia, Russia and Holland. In 2014, he went with the U.S. men's team to the World League matches against Bulgaria.

He also served as team manager for the U.S. men's team at the Four Nations Tournament in Leipzig, Germany, in May of 2008. Rose was also inducted into the National Jewish Sports Hall of Fame in 2010.

In June 2011, Rose served as the team leader to the U.S. Women's National Team at the Montreux Volley Masters in Montreux, Switzerland. He joined former Nittany Lions, Megan Hodge, Alisha Glass and Nicole Fawcett. The squad went 2-1 in pool play and finished fourth overall.

An instructor in the USVBA coaches certification program, Rose has previously served as a national referee and evaluator and state director for volleyball for the Special Olympics. In 2005, USA Volleyball named Rose one of their All-Time Great Coaches, making him the first Big Ten coach to ever receive the honor.

As active clinician, Rose also coached professional men's volleyball in the Superior League in Puerto Rico in 1976 and has continued to do clinics on the island as well as in the United States and Europe. Rose was also member of the NCAA Division I Volleyball Committee for six years and the NCAA representative to the United States Volleyball Association Rules Committee.

Rose was selected as the recipient of the 2013 Honorary Penn State Alumni award. A prestigious honor, the Honorary Alumni Awards are presented to individuals who are not Penn State graduates, but have made significant contributions to the welfare, reputation and prestige of the institution. The award is only given when the Alumni Association wishes to honor an exceptional person.

>> A ROSE IN HAPPY VALLEY

Rose graduated from George Williams College in 1975, having played volleyball on the school's 1974 National Association for Intercollegiate Athletics National Championship team.

Following graduation, Rose remained at George Williams for two years as a part time coach, helping the women's team win two state titles, as well as a sixth-place finish in national competition.

He also served as an assistant for the men's team that won the national championship in 1977.

In 1978, he completed his master's degree at Nebraska, while also serving as the defensive coach for the Cornhuskers.

While writing his thesis on volleyball statistics, he led the junior varsity team to a two-year varsity mark of 52-5.

After leaving Nebraska, Rose had plans to continue his postgraduate education at BYU before a last minute change of plans brought him to Happy Valley.

"I was accepted at BYU to get my EdD," Rose said. "I received a teaching assistantship. I was ready to go. I met with the resident bishop and then I was offered the Penn State job."

It was 1979 when Rose arrived on campus, set to take the reigns of the women's volleyball program from legendary Penn State men's and women's volleyball head coach Tom Tait.

In 2013, Rose was named an Honorary Penn State Alumni. In honor of earning one of Penn State's most prestigious awards, he was presented with an engraved bench outside Rec Hall.

"I had just turned 25," Rose said. "I was happy I had a coaching job, I didn't know what I didn't know. I didn't have an office. I didn't have a telephone, I didn't have anything. I had 16 or 18 classes to teach a year, no assistant coach. I thought I had a good deal."

His first career victory at Penn State came September 21, 1979, when Rose guided the Nittany Lions to a 2-0 (17-15, 15-13) win against Navy in the season opener at the George Washington Invitational.

Rose led the 1979 Penn State women's volleyball team to a 32-9 overall record in his first season at the helm of the program. The result of a successful season? A $400 raise.

Rose married Lori Barberich, a former three-time All-American at Penn State, in 1986. Together, they have four sons, Jonathan, Michael, Christopher and Nicholas.

The Rose family: Nicholas, Christopher, Lori, Coach Rose, Jonathan and Michael.

Russ Rose has taken Penn State from the regionally competitive level to that of an NCAA power since he took over the Penn State women's volleyball program in 1979. The development has been complete and successful, because of excellent talent and an equally sound method. The following is "the Russ Rose coaching philosophy."

COACH'S ROLE
"I believe the coach has numerous roles that require constant review and attention. First, and foremost, is the recruitment of quality student-athletes. With effective coaching, athletes have always been the key to a team's success."

"Secondly, we as a staff have to relate to the players what we feel is important for their growth and success. All the knowledge in the world will prove to be useless if we can't prepare our team for competition. We've shown this to be one of our strengths. I have great confidence that Katie, having played for me as well as Dennis and Chris understand me and the program. I know they will do whatever it takes to help the players improve and pursue their dreams."

"Third, we have to prepare the team, physically, tactically and mentally. The physical preparation is easy, as the entire Penn State environment encourages the pursuit of excellence as shown by our years of high finishes in the Director's Cup results. The fact that all of our fall sports teams have won Big Ten titles more than reinforces that school of thought. The mental aspect of our players' development is one of the areas that I feel has separated us from our competition. We are committed as a group to reaching the highest levels possible - year in and year out. The team understands the need to be accountable, and I'm not hesitant to get their focus headed in the right direction."

"Certainly our time in the Big Ten has demonstrated to us the importance of making sure that the players are aware of what is going to be expected of them in a conference as strong as the Big Ten. It's been the strongest conference in the country as determined by the RPI and has led the nation in attendance for a number of years."

"Outside the Big Ten, we commit to play a competitive non-conference schedule. We continually strive to meet teams during the regular-season that have advanced in the national championship playoffs. It is a goal of mine for Penn State to always be in the top five in strength of schedule. We reached that goal in 2017 as we finished at No. 2 in the RPI."

"I contend that the best way to see where our team is and where we aspire to be, is to play the nation's best teams. Our administration has allowed us to compete annually for the national championship. Universities enable teams to compete for the national championship. I have been blessed to have an administration that possessed the vision to support our program and I feel we have been able to deliver. It starts at the top with a University President and Athletic Director and staff who guide and assist the program."

"I think our role here is to attract the type of player who wants to be at Penn State, understands what we are about and knows what it will take to fit into our program. I refuse to be in the position where we are going to be saying one thing to get a player interested in Penn State and then change our story once the athlete arrives on campus. I am interested in players who are willing to be up front, committed and passionate in what they see in their own development and what we can do to help them succeed. I want players that want to be at Penn State rather than telling players what they want to hear."

"In turn, players must be willing to commit to the process and accept the culture of our program. They must work to be the best they can be every day in training, at practice and in matches. When those things happen, the results speak for themselves. It is a collaborative effort. Every team is different and has its own methods and paths to follow with the ultimate goal of being successful."

"Over the years I have been contacted by numerous schools as well as the U.S. National Team and foreign professional teams regarding vacant coaching positions, however I feel that the support I receive from the administration at Penn State is perfect for me, and I have no interest in coaching anywhere but Penn State. The opportunity to work and travel with our men's and women's national teams is perfect and it has allowed me to see the best volleyball played in the world."

TEAM PLAY
"Team play really deals with volleyball being the ultimate team sport. The last few years, we've not only had outstanding talent but we've had a great team spirit. Talent can get you only so far. If players aren't working together and committed to achieve great things, sacrificing and willing to embrace the needs of the team, then the team isn't going to shine. I can't guarantee recruits that we're going to win a conference championship or play for a national championship, albeit our goals should be along those lines. I guarantee them they're going to get better, be treated fairly and will receive an opportunity to play.

"The team that is willing to emphasize the pursuit of excellence at its own personal expense is the team that most often succeeds. Our success over the years, where we have won numerous conference titles and advanced to the national semifinal and championship matches, continues to reinforce these beliefs. The seven national championships are clearly the icing on the cake. A national championship does not validate a coach, a player or their program and its alumni. It highlights the efforts of many and allows the community to celebrate the actions of the team. Our goal is to remain at that level and even if we fall short, we know that we are in the game. The pursuit is the challenge and getting to the final match is the reward."

FUNDAMENTALS
"Fundamentals and the player's development of them are the most important aspect of the game. The game is played by players who have to be able to execute the basic skills of the game. We try to recruit student-athletes who are great volleyball players but the game always comes down to the execution of the core fundamentals."

"I will not sacrifice the time necessary to develop a strong foundation. This is where a team's discipline and confidence is first introduced and developed. Our commitment to each team is for every one of our players to be challenged to become the best they can be every day. I know our players are constantly improving their game here. I can't guarantee victories but I can guarantee a player will improve at Penn State, and that is evidenced by the number of athletes who have received individual awards or chosen to further their careers with the national team or receive the opportunity to play professionally. We have five players training with the national team.

TEAM DEFENSE
"Team defense is always an area we pride ourselves on and has always been one of the staples of our program. The pursuit of the ball in a game can only occur through preparation and repetition. I believe that everyone in the program has to rally around certain principles. At Penn State, we play hard, controlled defense, which means every player pursues every ball or they are taken out. I believe if you train hard, then the game itself begins to appear easy. If a player starts making decisions on what ball they think they can get and what they think is somebody else's ball, that's when we try to make some adjustments and get someone else involved in the play. Our defensive philosophy is to keep every ball in play – every day of each season in practice as well as games. I believe we have shown this works over the long haul. Defense and winning are an attitude and we attempt to do the latter by emphasizing the former. I feel our defense and grit in multiple title matches was the key to our victories."

STUDENT-ATHLETE
"The term student-athlete is a very valid one here at Penn State and in the Big Ten. We recruit not only quality athletes, but quality students as well. There is no question in my mind that the well-rounded individual will be better prepared to deal with the numerous challenges faced in life. The programs available at Penn State are geared for success. The opportunity to pursue your potential, both academically and athletically, is in place and working well at Penn State. The student support services at Penn State and the job Jim Weaver does with our team is outstanding. It is a reflection of the entire athletic department's commitment to provide the necessary services for the student-athletes to pursue and achieve their dreams."

"I expect a commitment both to academics and athletics. I take great pride in the fact that every young woman who has entered our program and completed her playing eligibility has received or is working toward her degree. Rankings of the 31 athletic programs on campus reveal that the women's volleyball team annually posts one of the highest cumulative grade-point averages. With proper emphasis on the importance of maintaining high academic standards, I know we will achieve continual success. At Penn State, we have had the most members of the Academic All-Big Ten team as a sport and an institution since joining the conference, and we take great pride in always have two or three academic All-Americans each year. That speaks volumes about our student-athletes as well as our academic advising staff."

THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE
"The Big Ten, in my opinion, continues to the strongest conferences in the country in both fan support and performance. It is a conference that is totally committed to the pursuit of excellence. The opportunity to play volleyball in the Big Ten truly enhances our program. The excitement generated by the athletes and fans at matches is great for the sport. It continues to be a great environment in which to compete. The conference has been ranked No. 1 in the volleyball RPI ratings since 1998 and has been a national leader in attendance the past ten years Additionally, no conference has had more teams advance to the final four."

PENN STATE UNIVERSITY
"Penn State as a school has been very fortunate and good for women's volleyball. I don't think there is another school in the country that has the support of everyone from the president of the university and the athletic director, to the residents of State College. Our players really reap the benefits of being at Penn State. I am extremely optimistic on the future of Penn State women's volleyball and there is no place in the country I'd rather be than Penn State. The community has supported us during our development and the university's commitment is to be the best in everything it offers, from academics and research to music and the arts as well as athletics."

RECRUITING
"Recruiting is the life blood of a program and a team. It is our goal to encourage quality student athletes to visit Penn State with their parents to get a realistic view of what is really entailed with what we refer to as the 'Penn State Experience.' The campus, the environment and face of State College truly separates us from many of the other schools in the country as we exemplify the meaning of a 'college town.' The chemistry that exists between the team members is what has kept us competitive and the energy that exists between the university and the town of State College keeps the juices flowing. We want players that want to make a commitment to be the best that they can be. We also want players to be aware of the fact that I am looking for a level of accountability from them as well. I'm not looking for a situation where I'm going to spend 24 hours a day, seven days a week trying to monitor their lifestyles or get involved in preventing them from having a good time. I believe the college experience at this time in their lives is the greatest opportunity to have fun and explore. I think you live hard and play hard and at Penn State, the students have a great opportunity to have fun in multiple areas."

STAFF
"I feel great about our staff. Some people would think that having people who are from their alma mater would be a negative but I see it as a positive. It's a positive thing to have people with experience involved because they know in this program, they are going to be encouraged to have an opinion and their opinions are going to be heard. I respect what my former players have to say and the players can turn to them and get good feedback and not be dependent on having to interact with me all of the time. An additional benefit that is important in our philosophy is that we try and look at the strengths of the players and how best to get them to contribute as well as continue to meet their goals. We think it's a tremendous bonus."

"I am thrilled to have Katie Schumacher-Cawley to return to Penn State as an assistant. She was a terrific student-athlete here for both women's volleyball and women's basketball, and has had an extended career as a head coach at both the University of Illinois-Chicago as well as a season at Penn. Katie brings a great awareness of the history and the demands of being a Penn State women's volleyball student-athlete. She will make great contributions in working with the players with their transition to college as she is a person that the players will naturally gravitate towards. I have great confidence that she will be able to share with the players about being a student-athlete and being a young women, and contributing to our program."

"One of the great things about Dennis Hohenshelt returning as an assistant is that we have worked together before. We know each other's strengths and weaknesses. I have a great confidence in Dennis and his abilities to work with the players. I believe he is a far smarter coach from his five years as a head coach at Virginia, and I think those years and experiences will make him even more valuable to the Penn State volleyball community."

"I am glad to have Chris Rose back with the program. Chris is what I think a volunteer assistant should be, and that is someone who is willing to be in the gym all the time, making the players better, working on their skills, and having great energy and enthusiasm for making people better. I believe that some of our best teams have occurred when our volunteer assistant was an individual that was putting in good time with the players in the gym. Chris' experiences at his previous stops have given him opportunities to grow, and have shown him a variety of ways to do things. It was his choice to come back to Penn State, and I think that makes a huge difference."

"Virginia Pham is someone who will have the ability to make great contributions to our program. Everyone I talked to at her previous stops and with USA Volleyball have raved about her energy and her ability to make their programs better. We actually talked to her earlier in her career, and it wasn't the right fit at the time, and now I am glad to have the chance to have her on our staff."

"We're one of five schools in the country who have had a men's and a women's team that have won a national championship in volleyball and the only school outside of California and Hawaii that can make that claim and I think it's terrific that volleyball is on the map here year round. The interaction between the men's and women's programs here is exceptional. Both schools winning the national title's during the same academic year allow the sport to be recognized nationally and valued here by our many fans and the great student support."

BOOSTER CLUB
"Our Booster Club has been outstanding with everything we've asked them to be involved in. They funded our five foreign trips (Cuba, Italy and Brazil and Europe), pay for our banquet and support us at home and on the road. They also provide a welcoming environment for the players away from home where they can go for dinner and can interact with people who are supportive of the program. The Boosters are incredibly welcoming. I always get comments from parents of recruits about how welcoming everyone is. I think that's a part of Penn State and State College and it's been a big part of our program."

IN THE COACHING RANKS AFTER PENN STATE

Head coach Russ Rose has produced many of the nation's top players in his 39 years at the helm of the Penn State program. However, his players and staff don't end their paths once they graduate or move away. A great number of Nittany Lion alumni have successful professional volleyball careers and are also pursuing coaching careers at high schools, clubs and universities across the country. Listed to the right are the names of former staff members and student-athletes who have entered the coaching ranks after spending time at Penn State.

Former University of Maryland volleyball head coach Steve Aird announced the hiring of Kristin Carpenter as an assistant coach on February 16, 2017. With fellow Nittany Lion and former manager of the women's team, Adam Hughes succeeding Aird, Carpenter continues her career with the Terps. Carpenter was a part of Penn State's National Championship squads in 2009 and 2010, starting off her career as a setter for the Nittany Lions. Carpenter also served as a captain of the Nittany Lions during her senior season in 2012.

University of Texas - San Antonio head women's volleyball coach Laura Neugebauer-Groff has hired two-time National Champion Dominique Gonzalez in March 2017 as an assistant coach. A two-time National Champion at Penn State, Gonzalez works primarily with the Golden Flashes' defensive specialists. Gonzalez wrapped up her career at Penn State ranked fourth on the Nittany Lion career digs list with 1,474 all-time.

In conjunction with Penn State's 50 years of Women in Sport celebration during the 2014 season, the Nittany Lions hosted the first-ever Penn State Alumni Classic. The tournament featured four opponents who were all former Nittany Lions including: former Eastern Illinois head coach Kate Price (2008), former DePaul head coach Nadia Edwards (2001), former University of Illinois-Chicago head coach Katie Shumacher-Cawley (2002) and East Carolina's Julie Torbett (1990).

All Penn State women's volleyball alumni attending the 50th Anniversary of Women in Sport celebration in 2014 were honored during the intermission.

Penn State women's volleyball head coach Russ Rose announced the promotion of Dennis Hohenshelt from volunteer assistant to assistant coach with the Nittany Lions in February 2018. Hohenshelt spent 16 seasons at Penn State with the men's and women's volleyball teams prior to a five-year stint as the women's volleyball coach at Virginia.

Hohenshelt spent the 2017 season as the volunteer assistant coach for the Nittany Lions, and was a key component to Penn State's NCAA Tournament semifinal run.

Prior to his return to Happy Valley, Hohenshelt spent five seasons as the head coach at the University of Virginia, being named head coach in January 2012. Hohenshelt led the Cavaliers to three .500-plus seasons, in both ACC play and on the season.

In his second season at UVa, the Cavaliers doubled their win total from the previous season and finished with an 18-14 record and an 11-9 record in ACC play. The Cavaliers' 18 overall and 11 conference wins were the most since 2007, when the team finished 18-13, 13-9 ACC.

Under his direction, the Cavaliers had eight All-ACC selections, the 2013 ACC Freshman of the Year, 2015 East Coast Region Freshman of the Year and four All-ACC Freshman team honorees. Virginia also had its first AVCA All-American since 2007 when Lauren Fuller was named to the honorable mention team in 2015. Additionally, four Hoos claimed AVCA All-Region accolades during Hohenshelt's tenure.

Before taking the reins at UVa, Hohenshelt was an assistant coach with the Penn State women's team for six seasons after spending 10 campaigns with the Nittany Lion men's team.

With the women's program at Penn State, which won four consecutive NCAA titles from 2007-10, Hohenshelt was involved in match preparation, player development and recruiting. He helped guide Arielle Wilson to set the NCAA Division I record for career hitting percentage at .468 and earn 2007 Big Ten Freshman of the Year and University Park NCAA Regional Championship Most Outstanding Player honors.

Hohenshelt helped the Penn State men's team to the 2006 National Championship match for the first time in 11 years and assisted in recruiting the core of the 2008 team that won the NCAA crown.

During Hohenshelt's tenure, the women's program compiled a 199-18 (.917) record, while the men's team went 237-82 (.743) with Hohenshelt on staff.

A native of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, Hohenshelt received his bachelor's degree in secondary education and social studies from Juniata College in 1993, where he led the Eagles to consecutive Eastern Intercollegiate Volleyball Association (EIVA) titles in 1992 and 1993 and earned Most Valuable Player honors his senior year.

Hohenshelt Family: Jake, Dennis, Reese, Tara, and Axl.

Hohenshelt began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Huntingdon (Pa.) High School from 1993-95 and was an assistant at Juniata from 1994-95. After being promoted to head coach in 1996, he led the Eagles to an 18-8 record and a second-place finish in the EIVA Division III Tournament.

He resides in State College with his wife, Tara, and three children, Jacob, Reese and Axl. Tara, formerly Rowlyk, was a four-year defender for the women's lacrosse team at Penn State. She helped lead the Lions to the 1995 NCAA National Semifinals and the quarterfinals in both 1996 and 1997. She is currently an assistant coach for the Penn State women's lacrosse team.

During the 2017 season at Penn, Schumacher-Cawley led the Quakers to a 12-11 record, while going 7-7 in Ivy League play. Prior to her tenure at Penn, Schumacher-Cawley spent 14 years coaching at UIC, including eight as the head coach (2009-16). On October 15, 2008, she was inducted into the prestigious Chicagoland Sports Hall of Fame for her contributions to the sport of volleyball as an athlete and a coach. She was part of a class that also included Pro Football Hall of Famers Dick Butkus, Gale Sayers and Marv Levy; Chicago Cubs great Andre Dawson and Chicago Mayor Richard M. Daley.

Schumacher-Cawley earned her Bachelor of Arts in communications from Penn State in May 2002. She is married to Mike Cawley, who was a James Madison University football student-athlete from 1993-95, and they have three daughters, Stella, Nora and Shea.

There's never been a better opportunity for Nia to demonstrate that she's ready to play. She's always been playing behind All-Americans, and with the departure of Simone and Ali, her chance to seize the position and make it her own is now.

What we need from Bryanna this year is for her to be a mature leader and have the ability to lead the team from whatever position she's asked to play.

> Tori has continued to develop from her redshirt year; she plays hard, and competes hard, and those are the calling cards that she brings to the game. I'd like to think that Tori is going to be able to step up a bit more this season, and not only play with confidence but have a leadership responsibility that others can benefit from and depend on to take some of the load off of the younger players.

> Kendall's strength as a player, as always, is her confidence and her competitive nature. With the new roster there is no definitive answer where she'll have to play defensively, but she is a confident person, and I know she's a good passer. She'll have to provide excellent leadership both on and off the floor, and I would expect her to be able to continue to make significant contributions as a player and a leader.

GABBY BLOSSOM

5-10 • Freshman • Setter
Saint Louis, Mo./St. Joseph's Academy

High School: No. 28 2018 PrepVolleyball.com Senior Ace ... 2018 Missouri Gatorade Player of the Year and one of three finalists for the National Gatorade Player of the Year ... 2017 Under Armour first-team All-American ... Winner of the 2018 Andi Collins Award for the nation's top setter ... MaxPreps second-team All-American ... Led St. Joseph's Academy to a 33-3 record and the Class 4 state championship in 2017 ... Recorded 794 assists, 184 digs, 69 kills and 36 blocks while posting a hitting percentage of .366 ... Four-year starter ... Selected twice for first-team All-Metro and all-state honors ... Three-time all-conference and all-district ... was the St. Louis Post Dispatch All-Metro Player of the Year in 2017.

Gabby is an Andi Collins Award winner, and was recognized as one of the top prep setters in the country. Nothing that I saw in the spring semester would tell me that that was a bad selection. She's very competitive and she has great control of the ball. No one wants to be in the gym more than her and this is a trait I think is really important for setter and for players that hope to make an impact on a program. All of the teams she's been on have been successful and I think a lot of it is based on her ability to play the game and contribute to the team's success.

Russ Rose

ALLYSON CATHEY

6-1 • Freshman • Outside Hitter
New Albany, Ind./New Albany

22

High School: No. 71 2018 PrepVolleyball.com Senior Ace ... Logged 520 kills, 300 digs, 94 blocks and 31 aces in her senior season ... Finished her high school career at New Albany, where she played middle, with a school-record 1,978 kills on a .373 hitting percentage, added 296 blocks, 843 digs, and 129 service aces ... Finished with three-straight seasons of 500-plus kills and .400-plus hitting percentage ... Played outside for her club, KIVA.

Allyson is certainly more of a traditional outside hitter. She played for both a successful high school and club program and is an aggressive attacker both pins. She has the physical tools to compete in the Big Ten Conference. She's physical and works hard and I look forward to seeing how she blends with what we're doing.

Russ Rose

SERENA GRAY

6-2 • Freshman • Middle Blocker
Temple City, Calif./Temple City

16

High School: No. 5 2018 PrepVolleyball.com Senior Ace ... Member of the 2016 U.S. Girls' Youth National Training Team ... Placed runner-up with club SG Elite for Girls' Junior National Championship in 15 Open, and finished in third place in 2017 for the 17 Open age group ... In her freshman season, was named the TCHS Varsity Defender of the Year, and was named Rio Hondo League 2014 Second Team All-League ... Did not play her sophomore season ... TCHS MVP in her junior and senior season and Rio Hondo League 2016 and 2017 first-team All-League.

> Serena is an exceptional talent at the net. I believe she could be productive from all three of the positions along the net, with a strong arm and a strong block. She competes hard, and high, and will be able to help us in a number of ways.

JENNA HAMPTON

5-7 • Freshman • Defensive Specialist
Tampa, Fla./Berkeley Prep

15

High School: No. 31 2018 PrepVolleyball.com Senior Ace ... 2017 Under Armour All-American second team ... Played outside for Berkeley Prep, registering 224 kills, 44 aces and 344 digs, and going 30-2 on the year on the way to the Class 5 State Championship ... Named the 2017 Hillsborough Player of the Year by the Tampa Bay Times ... Finished her career with 1068 digs (4.2 per set), 910 kills, 60 blocks, and 102 aces ... Libero for Orlando Tampa Volleyball Academy.

> Jenna is as good of backrow player coming in as we've had in years. She has a great touch on the ball, plays very hard and covers a large area. I think her defense is her strength and her confidence is high. I would expect her to come in and really challenged for a lot of playing time.

BROOKLYNN HILL

5-8 • Freshman • Defensive Specialist
Rancho Cucamonga, Calif./Rancho Cucamonga

High School: Three-time Defensive Player of the Year ... Four-time Scholar Athlete ... Scooped up 461 digs and dished out 42 aces in her senior season ... Averaged 4.5 digs per set (431 digs) in 2016, while also adding 67 aces and making good on 87 percent of her 488 serve reception attempts as a junior ... Garnered honorable mention all-league and second-team all-area accolades ... In her sophomore season, she managed 2.9 digs per set and handled serve at a 90-percent efficiency.

Brooklynn is an individual who we've had at camp, who's worked hard to solidify her game. She played libero for both her club and high school teams, and has a good touch on the ball and plays really hard and possesses a good serve. She'll come in and compete with some of the older players for playing time. Anytime you find people that are aggressive, physically mature, are going to work hard and want to be in your program, they can always find ways to make a program better.
Russ Rose

KAITLYN HORD

6-4 • Freshman • Middle Blocker
Lexington, Ky./Henry Clay

High School: No. 3 2018 PrepVolleyball.com Senior Ace ... Member of the 2016 U.S. Girls' Youth National Training Team and the USA Girls' U18 World Championship 2017 team ... Did not play in 2017 ... went 37-7 in her junior season, and finished runner-up with Henry Clay High School in the KHSA State Tournament, being just the second-ever public school to make it to title game ... Recorded 269 kills, .421 hitting percentage, and 124 blocks in her junior year ... Finished her high school career with 468 kills, a .397 hitting percentage and 248 blocks.

Kaitlyn is a great natural blocker, who gets up fast and will certainly have a bright future at Penn State and beyond college. I've watched Kaitlyn play quite a bit and I especially like her demeanor. Her blocking is ahead of her hitting right now, but I like the fact that she is always smiling, yet works hard.
Russ Rose

JONNI PARKER

6-1 • Freshman • Outside Hitter/Setter
Casstown, Ohio/Miami East

High School: No. 14 2018 PrepVolleyball.com Senior Ace ... 2018 Ohio Gatorade Player of the Year ... 2017 Under Armour first-team All-American ... Four-year varsity captain ... four-time All-District 9 first-team ... Two-time District 9 Player of the Year ... Two-time All-Ohio Division II first-team ... Ohio Division II 2016 State Champions ... Put down 449 kills on a .467 hitting percentage, adding 315 assists and 153 aces in her senior season ... concluded her high school career with school record 1,697 kills and state of Ohio-record 505 service aces ... Four-time cross country runner of the year and four-time first-team all-conference for cross country.

> Jonni is a player that comes to us with a great resume of success both in her high school and her club background as both a setter and an all-around player. She's a terrific teammate and competitor with a level head, strong volleyball IQ and a good awareness of the game. She seems to flow through the game really well and has a good sense for making plays and being in the right position at the right time.

AMANDA PHEGLEY

Tampa, Fla./Berkeley Prep

High School: No. 56 2018 PrepVolleyball.com Senior Ace ... 2017 Under Armour All-American second team ... attended Berkeley Prep for her junior and senior years ... Averaged 3.3 kills per set on a .474 hitting percentage in her senior season, adding 1.2 blocks per set ... Totaled 457 kills on a .456 hitting percentage, adding 183 total blocks, with a 50-10 record, and the 2017 Florida 5A State Title in her two seasons at Berkeley Prep ... Attended P.K. Yonge Development Research School for her freshman and sophomore years ... Went 60-3 in her two years, winning the 3A Florida State Championship in 2014, and the 4A title in 2015.

> Amanda is a strong net player with a good arm and a great work ethic. She has attended camp for a number of years and I like how she's continued to improve, and how she works hard. Every communication that I always have with her, I feel like she's a mature person beyond her years. I think she'll be able to adjust to what the expectations are here and what position she needs to be in to contribute.

NITTANY LIONS BY MONTH

•Penn State is 54-6 (.900) during the month of August under the direction of head coach Russ Rose, after notching a trio of wins against UT Martin, Delaware, West Virginia in the first week of the 2017 season. The Nittany Lions have not dropped a season-opening match since losing to Oregon in 2011 before rebounding with a hard fought 3-2 win against No. 2 USC the next evening. Penn State's first two season-opening losses came during the inaugural NACWAA in 1995 against Nebraska and in the 1999 NACWAA when Florida outlasted Penn State, 3-2, in the opening round.

•With head coach Russ Rose at the helm of the program, Penn State is 391-56 (.875) during the month of September, dating back to 1979. The Lions are 233-22 (.914) during the month of September dating back to the 1995 season and 72-12 (.859) since 2010.

•PSU is 403-48 (.894) during the month of October during Rose's tenure. Penn State has posted a 140-21 (.870) mark in October since the 2000 season, and a record of 96-11 (.897) dating back to 2006, without losing a match during the month from 2006 to the end of the 2009 season.

•Penn State is 307-51 (.858) during the month of November since 1979, including a 135-17 (.888) mark since the end of 2000. The Nittany Lions posted a four-year streak from 1996-99 where they did not lose a match in the month. Since 2010, the Nittany Lions have dropped just nine matches over eight seasons, and have gone undefeated in four of those seasons. They have accumulated a 58-9 (.866) record over that time.

QUICK SETS

•From Oct. 16, 1996 to Nov. 9, 2001, Penn State won 139 consecutive matches when taking a 2-0 lead. Since joining the Big Ten Conference in 1991, Penn State has played in 876 total matches, winning 777. Since 2008, Penn State has earned 210 of its 264 victories in three sets (80%), including 37-of-38 (98%) in 2008 and 32-of-38 (84%) in 2009. In 2015, Penn State won 22 of its 34 total matches by way of a 3-0 sweep.

•Since the 2001 season, the Nittany Lions have only lost 73 matches. And of those 22 teams that defeated Penn State — BYU, Colorado Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, Nebraska, North Carolina, Northwestern, Ohio State, Oregon, Oregon State, Purdue, Stanford, Temple, Tennessee, Texas, UCLA, Washington and Wisconsin — only nine of these teams (Nebraska, Stanford, Ohio State, Illinois, Wisconsin, UCLA, Minnesota, Michigan and Michigan State) have been able to beat Penn State three times. Since 2001, Penn State has compiled a 274-62 mark against all 20 teams to have beaten PSU within the stretch.

WASHINGTON CLEANS UP IN END OF YEAR ATHLETIC HONORS

Haleigh Washington was named the 2017-18 female recipient of the Ernest B. McCoy Award. The McCoy Award is the most prestigious honor presented by Penn State Athletics. The honor has been presented annually since 1971 to one senior female and one senior male student-athlete who have combined successful athletic participation with academic excellence. The award is named for Ernie McCoy, the long-time dean of Penn State's College of Physical Education, who also served as the University's athletic director.

She was also named the 2017-18 Penn State female recipient of the Big Ten Medal of Honor. The Big Ten, the nation's oldest collegiate conference, commemorates the 104th anniversary of a very unique tradition - the Big Ten Medal of Honor. The conference's most exclusive award was the first of its kind in intercollegiate athletics to recognize academic and athletic excellence. The Big Ten Medal of Honor was first awarded in 1915 to one student from the graduating class of each university who had "attained the greatest proficiency in athletics and scholastic work."

Washington was also named the Penn State Female Athlete of the Year, putting her on the ballot for the Big Ten Female Athletes of the Year with honorees from the other 13 conference institutions.

HONOLULU, Hawaii Dec. 18, 1999 -- In just one hour and 20 minutes, the top-ranked Penn State women's volleyball team erased memories of five game losses in the previous two title matches by sweeping Stanford for the first NCAA volleyball national championship in school history. Penn State defeated the Cardinal, 15-2, 15-10, 15-7, in front of a sold-out crowd of 10,252 at the Stan Sheriff Center.

It was a perfect ending for the three seniors who started in the previous two title matches. Each member of the trio played one of their best matches of the year, including senior Lauren Cacciamani, who was named the Most Outstanding Player after pounding out a match-high 20 kills with eight blocks.

"We did get an opportunity to watch a lot of film and we knew that we had to come out and jump on them," Cacciamani said. "We were going to try to go out there and dictate instead of having them show us what was going to go on. We were planning on going out strong and with a lot of fight."

Seniors Bonnie Bremner and Carrie Schonveld were also named to the NCAA Championship All-Tournament team. Bremner dished out 37 assists with four kills of her own. She also hit .333 with six digs. Schonveld had nine kills to go with her team-high 10 digs. The outside hitter hit .368 on the night and also aided at the net with three blocks (1 BS, 2 BA).

The Penn State blockers created a wall that the Stanford hitters could not avoid. Fueled by Cacciamani's eight blocks, the Lions held the Cardinal to a season-low -.008 hitting percentage as 1999 Co-Player of the Year Kerri Walsh zeroed out (11-11-33).

Redshirt-freshman Mishka Levy and sophomore Katie Schumacher added five blocks each--both with one solo and four assisted. Each of the six players that rotated to the front row recorded at least one block as Penn State ended the evening with 15 to Stanford's 10.5. Schumacher also added nine kills with three each from Levy and sophomore Amanda Rome.

Penn State trailed only once during the match. Down 3-1 in game two, the Nittany Lions rolled off three-consecutive points to take over the lead and never looked back. It was the first time this season the Cardinal had been swept. Penn State closed out the season with a 36-1 mark with the only loss coming in the season opener to Florida on Aug. 27.

"We didn't peak at the beginning of the season, obviously," Cacciamani said. "We lost our first match so we knew we wouldn't go undefeated. We did a good job playing as a team. We progressed and got better as the season went on.

"I think we set the stage for the win in the first game when we had 10 blocks. We had a great game plan and the players played with passion and enthusiasm right out of the chute. I believe the players are the ones that placed themselves in a position to get into this situation and I thought they handled all the distractions that normally come in a match like this as well as they possible could." - Russ Rose

Penn State reached the NCAA national finals in two consecutive seasons (1997-98) before defeating Stanford for its first NCAA national title in 1999.

The 1999 seniors led Penn State to its first-ever NCAA Women's Volleyball title (from left) Carrie Schonveld, Leilani Schlottfeldt, Bonnie Bremner, Kalna Miller and Lauren Cacciamani. (Schlottfeldt decided to return for her final year of eligibility in 2000.)

* Big Ten conference match

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Dec. 15, 2007 - Top-ranked Penn State women's volleyball team captured the program's second NCAA Championship, winning a dramatic five-game final, 3-2, against No. 4 Stanford in Arco Arena. The Nittany Lions won the thriller, 30-25, 30-26, 23-20, 19-30, 15-8, posting their 26th consecutive victory since a five-game loss to the Cardinal exactly three months prior.

"It's an amazing feeling," said junior outside hitter Nicole Fawcett. "This year's team was so determined. After the fourth game we were determined to get our focus back."

After taking a 2-0 lead, Penn State saw the top-seeded Stanford rally to tie the match, 2-2. The Cardinal took a 4-3 lead in the fifth set, but the Nittany Lions scored seven consecutive points to take control at 10-4. Junior middle hitter Christa Harmotto and sophomore setter Alisha Glass each had two kills during the critical run.

Kills by Fawcett and freshman middle hitter Arielle Wilson pushed Penn State's lead to 13-7. A block by Wilson and freshman opposite Blair Brown made it 14-8. The Nittany Lions immediately seized the opportunity on their first match point, as sophomore outside hitter Megan Hodge delivered her 26th kill of the match to secure the victory.

Penn State won set one, 30-25. Stanford led 15-13, but PSU scored five consecutive points to take a 18-15 lead. The game was tied at 22-22, but Penn State took the lead for good on a service error by the Cardinal and a kill by Harmotto. A block by Fawcett made it 29-24 and she delivered the game-winning kill for the 30-25 margin.

The Nittany Lions captured set two, 30-26. Penn State took the lead for good on a Fawcett kill to make it 13-12. Another Fawcett kill made it 29-25 and a block by Glass and Harmotto gave the Lions the 30-26 win and a 2-0 lead. Penn State hit .525 in the game, while the Cardinal hit .357.

Stanford won set three, 30-23, snapping a streak of 17 consecutive winning games for the Nittany Lions in the 2007 NCAA Tournament. Penn State took its last lead at 7-6 on a block by freshman middle hitter Arielle Wilson, but the Cardinal took the lead for good at 9-8.

The national championship match was the fifth in program history for the Nittany Lions, as they also advanced in 1993, 1997, 1998 and 1999, capturing the title in 1999. Penn State defeated Stanford (15-2, 15-10, 15-7) on Dec. 18, 1999 in Honolulu, Hawaii, to give the Nittany Lions their first NCAA Championship.

The two teams met earlier in 2007 in New Haven, Conn., with Stanford outlasting Penn State in five games (30-23, 23-30, 27-30, 30-28, 15-9) on Sept. 15. The Nittany Lions had won 25 consecutive matches since the loss entering the title match.

* Big Ten Conference match

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 20, 2008 – Top-ranked Penn State capped a record-setting season with its second consecutive NCAA title with a 3-0 win over No. 2 Stanford (25-20, 26-24, 25-23) at the Qwest Center in Omaha, Neb. The Nittany Lions finish the 2008 campaign with a perfect 38-0 record, only the fourth team ever in Division I women's volleyball history to finish the season with an unblemished slate.

Stanford took the 3-0 lead to start the match, but a Christa Harmotto and Blair Brown block along with two Harmotto kills helped pull Penn State within two at 6-4. The Nittany Lions trailed for much of the game, but forced two Stanford timeouts to steal the momentum. PSU went on to win the game, 25-20.

Penn State jumped out to the early lead in game two and held on to take a 2-0 lead in the match. Penn State had a 12-9 advantage midway through the frame, but a Stanford kill and block again trimmed the Lion lead to one at 12-11. The squads traded points before a Cardinal kill and block put Stanford up 14-13. Penn State kills from Blair Brown and Megan Hodge put the Lions ahead 15-14 heading into a time out. Penn State maintained the lead for the remainder of the set, but Stanford didn't let the Lions go unchallenged. A Stanford kill and a Lion attack error tied the score 24-24 before kills from Nicole Fawcett and Hodge gave PSU the set, 26-24.

A Harmotto and Brown block gave the Nittany Lions the 3-1 lead in the third game, but Stanford tied the game at 3-3. The Lions controlled the set until Stanford recorded three kills to pull within two at 23-21 forcing a Penn State time out. Out of the break, the Cardinals recorded another kill trimming the lead to one, 23-22, but Hodge responded with a cross-court kill that clipped the line to make it 24-22. Stanford recorded a kill before a Fawcett kill off the block ended the game, 25-23 giving the Nittany Lions earned their third NCAA title.

Penn State became just the sixth team in history to win back-to-back NCAA Championships, joining Hawaii (1982-83), Pacific (1985-86), UCLA (1990-91), Stanford (1996-97) and USC (2002-03). The Penn State volleyball programs also became only the third school to have its men's and women's teams capture their respective championships in the same calendar year, as the Penn State men captured their championship in May.

Penn State joins UCLA (1984) and Stanford (1997) as the only programs in history to accomplish the feat. Stanford (1996-97) and Penn State (2007-08) are the only two to win both titles in the same academic year. Penn State finished the season with a 114-2 individual game record and pushed its current NCAA-record match winning streak to 64 dating back to a five-game loss to 2008 NCAA runner-up Stanford on Sept. 15, 2007.

"I don't think it was the prettiest match to determine the national championship, but it was a match that was played very hard by both teams. I thought we hung in there defensively and gave ourselves opportunities and chance for Megan to take big swings at the end. I thought it was a group effort in a lot of areas. It certainly wasn't a match that had the same energy from the match a couple of nights ago. That one had the significance to get us here. Tonight's has special significance, especially for the seniors."

- Russ Rose

Penn State capped off the season with a perfect 38-0 record, making the Nittany Lions just the fourth team in DI women's volleyball history to record an unblemished slate.

Penn State recorded a .390 team hitting percentage in 2008 to mark the best NCAA DI hitting percentage all-time during the rally scoring era.

* Big Ten conference match

TAMPA, Fla., Dec. 19, 2009 - Top-ranked Penn State made history, becoming the first team to win three consecutive national titles with a 3-2 (22-25, 20-25, 25-23, 25-21, 15-13) come-from-behind victory against No. 2 Texas.

Senior Megan Hodge led the Nittany Lions with 21 kills, while both junior Blair Brown and freshman Darcy Dorton contributed 13 kills each. The Nittany Lions had five with double-digit digs led by junior libero Alyssa D'Errico, who posted a career-high 22.

Penn State and Texas kept it tight for most of the opening frame until the Longhorns pulled ahead, 13-11 after a PSU error and a UT kill. Penn State trailed for the next few plays until Hodge and Balza teamed up for a block and a monster kill to tie it at 14-14. UT worked up to a 17-15 lead stayed ahead courtesy of two kills and an ace. PSU came alive and rallied to tie the set at 22-22. Penn State called a timeout, but Texas closed out the set with two kills for a 25-22 win.

Texas took control in set two, jumping out to an 8-4 lead forcing the Nittany Lions to call an early timeout. Penn State managed to come within two, 10-8, but the Longhorns pulled ahead with a 7-1 run for a 17-9 lead. Penn State battled back with a 6-2 run to come within four, 23-19, but Texas rallied to take set two, 25-20.

PSU came out hot in the third set, building a six-point lead, 11-5, for its largest lead of the match. Texas didn't come closer than two as PSU took the set, 25-23.

Tied at 3-3 early in the fourth set, the Lions went on a 5-0 run to develop a five-point advantage, 8-3. UT answered back with a 9-3 run for a one-point lead, 12-11. The score tied four times before Hodge put down two consecutive kills for a 17-15 lead. A Texas timeout allowed the Longhorns to regroup and tie the set once again. Penn State maintained at least a one-point lead until a Wilson kill, a Texas error and Hodge put down after a long rally sent the match to a fifth and final set.

Texas jumped out to a 3-1 lead in set five before a Dorton kill and a Texas attack error allowed the Nittany Lions to tie it up at 3-3. The two squads traded points until UT's Adams posted a kill and a block for a 7-5 lead against the Lions. Hodge and Wilson notched one kill each to tie the set at 7-7, but Hooker posted one of her own to put UT ahead, 8-7. After a timeout, Balza and Glass registered a joint stuff to make it 8-8.

Trailing by one in the fifth set, 11-10, Dorton and Wilson posted back-to-back kills for a 12-11 edge. Dorton tallied another kill before a UT attack error made it set-point Penn State. Texas held off the attempt before Hodge closed out her collegiate career with the final kill of the match for the 15-13 triumph.

"It was a very strange match. It's one of those examples where you don't win the statistics war, but we found a way to win at critical times. Certainly Texas had a great season and has a great team. We feel like we played two great teams here in the Final Four that really were great representatives of their conference and the sport of college volleyball."

- Russ Rose

With the national championship win, Penn State's winning streak increased to 102 consecutive matches, which stood for an NCAA DI record for any women's sport.

Penn State's comeback marked the third time in NCAA Tournament history a team has come from down two (and ninth time overall coming from behind) to win the title.

KANSAS CITY, MO. Dec. 18, 2010 - Fourth-seeded Penn State made history once again, sweeping California (25-20, 27-25, 25-20) for the 2010 NCAA national championship. The Nittany Lion are the first DI women's volleyball team to win four consecutive national championships in history.

The NCAA national championship title is also the fifth career for Hall of Fame Head Coach Russ Rose.

Senior Blair Brown led all student-athletes with 18 kills, while freshman Deja McClendon tallied 16 and senior Arielle Wilson posted 12. Sophomore setter Kristin Carpenter dished out 46 assists. Senior Alyssa D'Errico led the team with 13 digs, while Brown contribute 10. Freshman Katie Slay had a match-high seven total blocks.

The Nittany Lions opened the match taking a 3-1 lead, but the Bears fought back and tied it at 4-4. Back-to-back kills by Ariel Scott put PSU back on top, 6-4. Penn State maintained the lead and was leading by five, 12-7, when Cal called its first timeout. The Bears came within one, 12-11, but kills from McClendon, Brown and Wilson and a D'Errico ace moved PSU up by four, 16-12. A 3-0 Cal run had the Bears trailing by one, 16-15, but the Nittany Lions did not look back, closing out set one, 25-20.

The second frame was close from the start with neither team able to develop any momentum to take a strong lead. Tied at 17-17, a block by Brown and Slay put the Lions in the lead, 18-17. Penn State and Cal continued to trade points before a Scott kill edged PSU ahead, but Cal was right there with a kill of its own to make it 21-21.

The score tied twice more before two straight Bear kills put Cal in the lead, 24-23. Following a timeout by the Nittany Lions, Brown and Wilson teamed up for a block to tie the set at 24-24. However, Cal's Carli Lloyd tallied a kill to put Cal at set-point for a second time. Penn State followed with a block by Carpenter and Slay teamed up for a block to keep it tied, 25-25. Brown pounded a kill to secure set two for Penn State, 27-25.

Penn State remained on top for most of the third set until two consecutive Cal points put the Bears within three, 18-15. The teams each registered a point each before PSU used a 4-0 run to pull ahead by seven, 23-16. Cal cut off the Penn State run with a block, but a Wilson kill put Penn State in match-point position. The Bears held Penn State to three match-points before Slay closed out the set and the match with a kill.

"We came out very strong in the first game. The second game, it was going back and forth and we were fortunate enough to win that second game, and I think that's probably where most of the momentum really came from. I thought the staff did a great job in helping devise a game plan, the kids listened well and we played hard and we were in a great position. The kids feel great. It's great for the university and the Big Ten Conference, and we're just as thrilled as we can be at this point in time."

- Russ Rose

Penn State won four consecutive national crowns, the most consecutive national titles ever for a DI volleyball squad. PSU joined just two other programs from DII & DIII as the only schools in collegiate athletics to win four straight volleyball national championships.

Penn State hit .316 in the NCAA national final to set a NCAA Final hitting percentage record for the 25-point rally scoring era.

* Big Ten conference match

SEATTLE - Dec. 21, 2013 - No. 2 Penn State women's volleyball team (34-2) captured its sixth NCAA women's volleyball national championship in program history, rallying past No. 12 Wisconsin in four sets (25-19, 26-24, 20-25, 25-23) at KeyArena. The NCAA national championship marks the fifth title for the Nittany Lions in the last seven years.

Senior Ariel Scott fueled the offense with a match-high 21 kills, adding five digs. Senior Katie Slay also tallied double-digit kills with 14. Senior Deja McClendon rounded out the double-digit performers with 11 kills. The trio all earned spots in the NCAA All-Tournament team.

Junior Micha Hancock paced all three of her top attackers to double-digit kills, dishing out 48 assists to go along with 16 digs and three aces for a double-double to earn NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player honors.

The Nittany Lions maintained a narrow advantage up until the midway point in the first frame, when Wisconsin climbed within one, 16-15, following a Badger kill. Regrouping, PSU put together a 4-0 streak to move ahead by five, 20-15, forcing the Badgers to call timeout. Following the break, Wisconsin fought within four, 22-18, but PSU closed out a 25-19 win in the first set.

The Nittany Lions led by as many as six in the opening portion of the second set before the Badgers rallied to knot the frame, 15-15. Penn State and Wisconsin battled back-and-forth for the remainder of the set, until the Badgers used a late 3-1 spurt to make it 24-23. A service error tied the stanza, 24-all, but Scott answered with two consecutive kills to lock up a 26-24 win in the second set.

Penn State came out of the break firing, using a 5-1 streak for an early lead. Wisconsin quickly erased the advantage, using a 4-0 run to knot the frame, 5-5. The Badgers and Penn State tied up the stanza three more times before the Nittany Lions used a 3-1 strike to crack open an 8-8 tie, moving up by two, 10-8.

With Penn State unable to sustain the momentum in set three, the Badgers took the frame 25-20 to force a fourth set.

Tied at 13-13 in the fourth, a kill from Scott and a block from Slay and Courtney kept the Nittany Lions on top, 15-13. Unable to shake the Badgers, Wisconsin and PSU continued to fight point-for-point until UW broke open an 18-all tie with a 4-1 streak to move ahead by three, 22-19. Hanging on, Penn State answered with a 4-1 run to tie the score, 23-23. A clutch ace from Hancock and a kill from McClendon finished off a 25-23 win for the victory.

"I thought it was a great match and all three times that we played Wisconsin this year was a battle. They play great defense. They play really hard. They're passionate kids, and I want to applaud the University of Wisconsin, their staff, as well as Washington."

- Russ Rose

Penn State and Wisconsin met in the NCAA national finals for the first all-Big Ten national title match in NCAA Tournament history.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. - Dec. 20, 2014 - Fifth-seeded Penn State swept past BYU in straight sets (25-21, 26-24, 25-14) at Chesapeake Arena to capture its seventh NCAA national championship in program history. Claiming the title in six of the last eight years, the Nittany Lions now have more national championship than any other women's volleyball program in history.

Redshirt junior Aiyana Whitney and junior Megan Courtney led the offense with 11 kills each. Courtney added 14 digs for her second consecutive double-double performance, while also leading the blocking unit with five blocks. Senior Micha Hancock paced the team to a .233 hitting clip, dishing out 36 assists. Both Hancock and Frantti earned NCAA Tournament All-Tournament team honors while Courtney was named the Most Outstanding Player.

Leading by four at the midway point in set one, 15-11, the Nittany Lions came out of the break with a block to widen the margin to five, 16-11. The Cougars chipped away at the lead with a 6-3 run to arrive within two, 19-17. A kill from Grant and a BYU attack error brought PSU back up by four, 21-17. A PSU attack error out of a timeout made it 21-18, but Penn State followed with a 3-1 spurt to arrive at set point, 24-18. BYU held off two attempts before Courtney put down a kill to secure a 25-21 win in the first set.

Leading by one, 3-2, in set two, a trio of kills from the Cougars lifted BYU ahead, 5-3. The Nittany Lions responded with a kill from Whitney and an ace from Grant to knot the stanza, 5-5. Penn State and BYU continued to keep it close, until the Cougars pulled away from a 7-7 tie with a 5-1 stretch to go up by four, 12-8, prompting PSU to call a timeout.

Penn State could not find momentum out of the break as BYU managed to maintain at least a two-point lead throughout the second half of the frame. Down by two, 19-17, PSU rallied with a 3-1 strike to tie the score, 20-20, causing the Cougars to take a timeout. PSU and BYU continued to battle point-for-point, until a kill from Whitney broke open a 23-23 tie to put Penn State at set point, 24-23. The Cougars held off two attempts before Hancock and Washington posted up for a block to lock up set two, 26-24.

Holding on to a slim lead, 4-2, in set three, Penn State used a 3-2 stretch to widen the margin to three, 7-4, causing BYU to call a timeout. The Cougars came out of the break with a kill, but Penn State responded with a 6-3 streak capped off with an ace from Hancock to make it 13-7. Penn State continued to roll, using an 8-2 streak to push the lead to well into double digits, 20-9. BYU looked to halt the momentum with a kill, 20-10, but Penn State cruised to a 25-14 win in the third set with a 5-4 stretch to complete the sweep.

"I thought we had a great game plan. I thought the players worked really hard at executing it, and we feel great about tonight's result."

- Russ Rose

Penn State's seventh NCAA National Championship gave the Nittany Lions more DI women's volleyball titles than any other program, leading Stanford by one (6).

Penn State's straight-set victory against BYU marked the third time in program history PSU has swept its national final opponent. The Nittany Lions have also not lost an NCAA title match since 1998.

AUG. 29, 2008

The Nittany Lions defend their title with a 3-0 sweep against Hawaii in the 2008 season-opener.

For the first time in 46 regular season matches, the Lions lose an individual set in a 3-1 win against Iowa.

PSU ties John Wooden's UCLA men's basketball winning streak with their 88th-straight victory.

109 MATCHES OF DOMINANCE

No one sitting in Rec Hall on Sept. 21, 2007, watching the Nittany Lions defeating Michigan State, would have thought they were witnessing the beginning of a historical streak.

The winning streak stands alone in Division I women's volleyball. It ranks second in NCAA history among organized sports, second only to the Miami men's tennis team's 137-match winning streak from 1957- 64. The record-breaking span of victories lasted more than 35 months, encompassing an NCAA record 111 wins in straight sets across 1,085 days.

Almost three years to the day the streak began, it comes to an end after a 3-0 loss to Stanford, the same team which sparked the record-breaking stretch in 2007.

109 - SEPT. 11, 2010

THREE-TIME NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

THE NITTANY LIONS BECOME THE FIRST TEAM EVER TO WIN THREE CONSECUTIVE NCAA TITLES IN A COME-FROM-BEHIND 3-2 VICTORY AGAINST TEXAS.

NITTANY LIONS ABROAD ...

Women's volleyball head coach Russ Rose has opened several cultural opportunities for his student-athletes, as the Nittany Lions have embarked on four foreign trips to five different countries in the last 15 years.

In 2000, Penn State took its first trip abroad, as the Nittany Lions officially became the first collegiate athletic team from the United States to be invited to play in Cuba. The Nittany Lions played Cuba's Junior National Team as well as a squad of former National Team players.

Dobrodosli ("welcome") to the Penn State Volleyball European tour 2005! Today was our first full day here and we have already done so much! Staying in the scenic city of Izola, we are pretty immersed in Slovenian culture. It's been drizzling a bit but we are staying right on the harbor of the Adriatic coast in the Hotel Marina and it is absolutely gorgeous. The brightly-colored buildings, green mountains and crystal clear sea make everything seem sunny. There is not a whole lot of English spoken here, so we stick out a lil' bit. The people have been pretty nice for the most part though, and we've managed to learn a bit of Slovenian: please = "prosim," thank you = "hvala," how much = "koliko" and "bela kava brez koffeina" = decaff cafe latte... I've already used that one about four times. All the girls are having a great time. We practiced last night after we got in and then played our first match today against a club team from Croatia. They were pretty young so we won all five games easily. We travel to the capital city of LJubljana tomorrow to play another match and see the sites. We will leave early in the morning to tour the city and then play in the afternoon. Tim and Jo from Bring It USA have really planned out a great trip for us. All the girls are really excited and the parents and boosters are having a good time too... with a few exceptions. So far the Naylors lost their luggage and got locked out of their room, the Janias tried to use a $1USD in an Italian Coke machine and then got their debit card chopped up in Izola, and Mrs. Holm tried to play matchmaker with the manager of a Slovenian pizzeria (which would be alright if the service wasn't so sub-par). So, to sum up... everyone is over their jet lag, we're loving Slovenia, and can't wait to get some more competition under our belts as we continue to travel the world!! Ciao!

May 11, 2005:

Ciao! Greetings from Slovenia. We started off this morning with a European breakfast at The Hotel Marina and then headed off to spend the day in Ljubljana, the capital of Slovenia. Upon arrival, we went to the tourist information center and got brochures of the entire city followed by a train ride to the medieval Ljubljana Castle. The castle is a fine feature of the city and nowadays it is a popular tourist spot. After the train ride back into the city square, we split up for a day of site seeing and fun. Our next step was a bus ride to our match. We played five games against a team called Nova Gorica, winning four of the five games. The match was very lively with a few face shots and a lot of cheering. The owner of the gym we played in also owned a restaurant nearby and he invited us to enjoy his five course cuisine. The food and atmosphere was amazing and the team, coaches, parents, and boosters all had a fabulous time. Tomorrow we leave Slovenia and are off to Venice, Italy.

May 12, 2005:

Today we finally woke up to the blue skies of Slovenia, only to say goodbye as we loaded the bus to continue on to Venice, Italy. After the bus ride we laced up our sneakers, stole the nearest "Vaporetto" (a motorboat used as a canal bus in Venice) and raced to the city - it was all Sam's idea! (Okay, so maybe the dramatic entrance is a slight exaggeration, but you know how girls can be.) After we docked near Piazza San Marco, the real adventures began. We had the entire day to absorb the city, and that we did. These are some of the interesting things I learned today:

1.) Imagine literally stepping into a world unlike anything you have ever seen. Imagine walking through massive crowds of people all speaking different languages. Now imagine seeing absolutely breathtaking architecture and scenery all around you. And finally, imagine 14 young American women (plus one Canadian) gracefully dodging hundreds of swooping pigeons while trying to take it all in at once. Thankfully, we all have cat-like reflexes and nobody was seriously injured.

2.) It's true what they say - Italian men really aren't afraid to sweep a woman off her feet! Maggie, Ashley Fidler, Melissa and I ate a delicious meal along the Grand Canal and as we were thanking the waiters and saying goodbye, the chef came from behind the counter, pinched my cheeks and picked me up in the middle of the restaurant! I am 6-5 ... he was probably 5-7 ... you do the math! Today marks the first time any man has dared to accomplish what he did. Sorprendente! (Amazing!)

On a more serious note, today was a perfect example of why we are so thankful to be in Italy doing what we love, and we are thankful to be sharing it with some of the people who helped make it possible. We were all able to see Venice through our own eyes and learned a lot about the culture and history. We split up into different groups and spent the day shopping and exploring all the city has to offer. It was a beautiful day in Venice, but there is still work to be done! We left the sinking city behind and drove to Pordenone, where we will play the local team tomorrow night. Kim and Kaleena have been playing very well, so tomorrow will be a good opportunity for some new faces to step up and contribute! We will keep you posted, but until next time, there is volleyball to be played and more dessert to be eaten! CIAO!

May 13, 2005:
Boun Giorno fellow Americanos (Good morning fellow Americans!). We spent day six in Pordenone. After breakfast most of us enjoyed the downtown shopping of the city. This city was most like the cities that we are used to in the United States. There are more cars and traffic here then in the previous places we have been. Small boutiques lined the streets with an occasional department store. In the afternoon we ventured to the Villa Manin, which is a palace of the former Doge. The enormous structure and beautiful architecture were overwhelming. Unique art lined the walls of one of the sections of the castle, while other sections displayed old weaponry and carriages. The chapel was detailed in elegant artwork. We did not have the opportunity to view the actual rooms of the castle because of restoration, but we were told that Napoleon had slept there and that his room was preserved. From the castle we came back to the hotel to enjoy the traditional Italian pregame meal, which was actually breakfast. This included cereal, fruit, yogurt, and various pastries. On the way to the gym our tour guides indulged us with the translations of a local newspaper article that was about the team being in the town. The article was informative and contained a picture of us receiving our Big Ten trophy. The match was held at a nearby town owned gym. We won four out of the five games that we played against Pallavolo Pordenone in front of a very lively crowd. The match was the most the competitive one since we have been here and was fun to play in. After we played, we ate dinner (at 10:30 at night). It is custom to eat pasta as an appetizer, but we did not know this before so most of us ate it as a meal. Little did we know that we were also having meat, fries, salad, and dessert! It was a great ending to a wonderful day! Arrivederci (goodbye)!!

May 14, 2005:
Ciao fellow Americans and Canadians,

Well, our arrival into Pesaro came on our official graduation day, had we been in State College. So, as our final college project, here is our journal entry! On the bus yesterday, driving from Pordenone to Pesaro, we had to present our research on the Marche region to everyone on the bus, complete with our graduation caps!

We are planning on spending three days total in this region, the first two in Pesaro, and the third in Comunanza. The region is pronounced "lay markay," and in English, it translates to "the Marches." The region lies on the eastern seaboard in central Italy, bordered by the Adriatic Sea to the east, and the Appenine mountains to the central part of the country. Pesaro is the capital city of this province, and is a bustling seaside resort town. Fortunately, we're here before most of the tourist season begins, so we've had the town all to ourselves!

When we arrived to our beach front hotel yesterday, we all ate lunch together, before we had a bit of down time last night. A few of us had the opportunity to accompany Coach Rose and Tim Kelly (in charge of our tour, he runs Bring It USA) to a professional women's volleyball match in a small town about 1.5 hours away from here. The gymnasium was full of enthusiastic and loud spectators, and it was a lot of fun! It was a match between the 2nd and 3rd place teams in the A2 division of the Italian professional league, with the winner of this match having the opportunity to move up to the A1 league next year. Wiz Bachman, former UCLA standout, was playing for the team that ended up losing in four games.

Today we had some free time to take in the sites of Pesaro, which is the hometown of famed opera composer, Giaochino Rossini. This evening we had a chance to play our fourth match, against a team from Gabiche, Italy, about 15 minutes from Pesaro. We won the four games we played in the match, and every member of the team had a chance to play. Tomorrow we'll have a chance to go to an Italian Catholic mass if we want, before getting back on the road and heading over to Comunanza. From what we've heard so far, it's a small mountain town, about three blocks long and one block wide. We'll be there only one night, and the gentleman who runs the hotel/restaurant where we'll be staying is so excited to host all of us! People drive from miles around to eat at his restaurant, so we're looking forward to tasting the food for ourselves!! We have two matches left on this trip, one tomorrow night in Comunanza, and the last in Rome on Tuesday night. Buonas sera from Italy!

-- Ashley Pederson & Syndie Nadeau

May 17, 2005:

After winding through the Italian hillsides, our team arrived in the town of Comunanza. The town was small with a population of around 3,000 people. We stayed where executives generally stayed when they would visit the major factory just outside of the town. It was very nice place to stay as five of the girls got to stay in a 3-bedroom apartment that had two bathrooms and a dining room. Once we got settled in our rooms the team got on our jerseys and walked to the gym. We played a club team from Amandola. Their team was short a few players so Ashley Fidler volunteered to play with the other team. We won the match in 3 games, while Kris Brown and Kaleena even got a chance to play front row. That night we had what most of the team considered our best meal of the trip. It was a traditional Italian family meal with multiple courses and elaborate dishes. One of the first dishes we ate was intestine and eggs. It was a long meal the lasted late into the night. The next morning we were off to begin our long drive to Rome. We wove through the mountains and hills on roads that you wouldn't think buses could travel.

After nearly a five-hour trip we finally arrived in Rome, the 'eternal city.' We checked into the hotel and were immediately off to the Metro station just a few blocks away. The Metro is very small and crowded because the designers of the Metro wanted to avoid digging railways under ancient Roman architecture. Our first stop took us to see the Spanish Steps, which was a series of three levels of steps leading up to a church. The lining of the steps was covered in flowers and it was a great place to take a team picture. Our next stop was the Trevi Fountain. This was the first elaborate sculpture work we saw in Rome and we were in awe. It is said that you must throw a coin into the fountain but you must throw the coin with your back facing the fountain. The number of coins you throw also determines your fortune. One coin and you'll return to Rome, two coins and you'll fall in love. With our backs facing the fountain, Maggie, Cassy, Fidler, and I threw in two coins each.

Our last stop of the day was to visit the Pantheon. As we walked inside we were amazed by the massive pillars holding the structure up. They lead us into a large circular dome with more sculptures and a roof with a giant circular hole allowing sunlight to pour inside. The basement of the building is also a resting place for people such as Raffaello a famous painter, Voltaire a philosopher, Murrie and Piere Currie both famous scientists as well as Victor Hugo the first president of unified Italy. After seeing the Pantheon we were all tired and grabbed some dinner, found the Metro and went back to our hotel.

Today we got up and again took the Metro to see the Coliseum. I stepped out of the station and all I could see was the building. The structure was built between 12AD and 80AD and most of it still remains standing today. When it was first built it was called the Amphitheatre Flavium, and held up to 50,000 people. It was used to hold battles between animals and humans along with chariot races and mock naval battles. The rest of the day we were able to tour around and explore the city of Rome. Other sites we saw included the Forum, the Arch of Constantine, and the Monument of Vittoriale. All of the sites were unique and amazing in their own respect. It was odd to see such monuments scattered amongst current shops and restaurants including McDonalds.

Tonight we played our sixth and final match in a town of Usaro, which is 30 minutes to an hour away from Rome depending on traffic. We played one of our more competitive matches against a club team called As Fidia Ladispoli. We won all five games although it was a bittersweet victory. It was the last time our three seniors; Tab, Syndie and Ashley would play in their PSU uniforms. The club team had ordered pizza for us and we shared it with them before getting on the bus and heading back to Rome.

Tomorrow is our last full day. We are going to see the Vatican City in the morning and the Pope may be speaking. The trip is almost over and it is going very fast but I'm very excited to get up tomorrow and see the Sistine Chapel.

May 10, 2009:
Greetings from Sao Paulo!

Today was the first day we spent in Sao Paulo, and boy was it eventful! We began the day enjoying a nice complimentary breakfast from the hotel and then all jumped into our awesome two-story bus to head into town. We toured the very interesting and historical city of Sao Paulo with our wonderful tour guide Morris (at least I think that is how you spell his name =). He taught us many, many things about the city and a few things stood out to me in the outing. First, Sao Paulo specifically is famous for its graffiti. The artists take much pride their artwork while creating competitions with other artists around the city to see who can create the most difficult piece of work. Second, if women around the city want to get married, they must pray to St. Anthony so that he will help them find a husband. (As soon as I learned this, I held a small prayer session with a few of my teammates).

After several hours of touring the city, we stopped at the Estadio Municipa to buy tickets to the professional soccer game. The Corinthians, or the home team, is the professional team that Cristiano Ronaldo plays for, so we were all very excited to have the opportunity to see him play! After buying our tickets, we took a quick trip down to a market place where we shopped for an hour or so and then ate an incredible lunch. The food, as we have all discovered, is incredible and it is so much fun to try all of these new dishes and experience all the new tastes (especially this drink they call Guarana, it is simply delicious!).

After lunch, we drove back to the stadium two hours before the game started to enjoy the pregame festivities. In one corner of the stadium, the away team was banging their drums and screaming their teams' anthem. In the other corner, and scattered all over the stadium, the Corinthian fans, dressed in black and white, were stomping and yelling at the fans dressed in red and green. There were policia stationed all around the fence separating us from the field to prevent any sort of fights that might erupt during the match if the game was to get close. It was one of the most invigorating and exciting things I've ever experienced. I know that we have some of the most dedicated fans in the country, but the way these fans supported their team was just incredible.

The game began and the screaming continued. The away team scored the first goal, which completely infuriated all of the Corinthian fans. We weren't able to watch the entire game because after sitting in the stands for four hours we all became incredibly hungry and exhausted. We drove to a local pizza parlor which turned out to be quite the adventure. They brought many different types of pizza out for each of us to try, (it would take way too long for me to try and list them all!) but by far the best part of the meal, were the three different dessert pizzas they brought out at the end; one had bananas and this cinnamon spread on it, one had strawberries and dark chocolate and the last one had chocolate and shredded coconut. Absolutely delicious!! Well we finally made it back to the hotel after an incredibly long day and it's time I get to bed! Boa Noite

May 11, 2009:

Today was our first day of playing and I think everyone was anxious to see the different style of play here. We started off the morning with the complimentary breakfast downstairs of the hotel where there were delicious pastries and fruit. We got on our awesome, two story bus and took off to practice. When we arrived at the practice facility, we were in awe of its beauty. There were big beautiful trees everywhere surrounding this huge sports facility. But the first thing we all noticed was the gigantic water slide that we all wanted to go down. When we got in to the gym where we practiced, we all put on our shoes and kneepads and did our normal warm up. While we were waiting for the balls to come, we did some blocking and digging stuff. Then Coach had us circle up while Jess and Tice had a pretty bad wrestling match....no one won. The balls finally arrived and we got to adapt to the balls that they use here.

After practice, we got to tour the facility. The facility used to be owned by a bank that sponsored teams but now is more of a country club. Lunch came after the tour and we went to a place where there was more meat, of course. It was a small buffet style with salad, sausage, fries, chicken and other things. They brought meat around the tables and everyone's drink of choice still seems to be Guarana. Right after lunch we went to our match.

We arrived at the facility and immediately started to warm up. We split the court with the team during hitting lines. The club team had girls from the ages of 17 to 21 and they were pretty athletic. We played four games with them and won all four. After we played, we exchanged t-shirts with them and then took a group picture.

This was another fun day filled with new experiences!

May 12, 2009:

The morning started out at the hotel, with the usual complimentary breakfast, in which many of us have become accustomed to crapes (thin French style pancake). You can either add delicious jelly type topping or chocolate, both team favorites. Everyone dressed in the casual Brazilian type attire of shorts and tank tops ready for another adventurous day. The plan for the afternoon was a tour of a different part of the city of Sao Paulo; also known as the shopping district, stop by a well-known park for lunch and a little walking around.

First of all, I must say, people down here drive CRAZY. They don't use turn signals and just weave in and out of lanes, not to mention the motorcycles that just drive up the center of the lane recklessly. It is an incredible sight to see, so forgive me if I forget different things about today, I got distracted watching the cars fly back and forth. So now to the good stuff, we started with a tour of the scenery on the way to this famous shopping street. We drove around beautiful estates of once famous people, hospitals and gorgeous malls. Among the other sites we drove past, was the Sao Paulo futbol club, another soccer stadium of a pro team in Sao Paulo.

After all this driving we stopped at our first destination, the luxurious shopping strip where we recognized many names such as LaCoste, Adidas, Nike, Timberland, and Tommy Hilfiger. One name we did not recognize but were informed of prior to our adventure was the Havaianas, the most famous rubber flip-flops that originated from Brazil. Many of us bought pairs for family as well as friends and ourselves. Unfortunately as well as fortunately, we were limited to half an hour of wandering along this strip (saving many of us lots of Reais).

The next stop was the beautiful park called Ibirapuera Park. It is four miles by four miles along the exterior borders and is full of green grass, ponds, bridges and restaurants. Unfortunately we were as a whole pretty worn out and didn't get the chance to explore more of the park after our delicious buffet style lunch. Clara (AD, our tour guide's, seven year old niece) has been teaching us Portuguese in exchange for English and sign language, thanks to Tice and Alisha. So of course, at lunch, we were asking the vocabulary queen about lettuce, ice cream and all other sorts of food on the table. After we finished lunch, (no caffeine) Christa and I enjoyed a small (maybe a half cup) of the ever so popular café and well, we were bouncing off the walls with energy for a bit. After we left the outdoor restaurant we walked to a bridge that oversaw a small pond with tons of fish in it (we were told were served them at the restaurant we ate at). We took pictures of the horizon behind us, which happened to be a cityscape of Sao Paulo. Shortly after visiting the near by bridge we walked to the bus and headed back to our hotel for a little nap before the match ahead of us that night.

We left the hotel at 5 p.m. for our match that began at 7 p.m. We arrived at the match SUPER early and proceeded to warm up for an hour and half (because it was a real match). As we all warmed up it was very strange to see a Penn State jersey on everyone for another match together. As the match started in a somewhat small gym at Uniltalo, the fans packed it in and the noise was overpowering. The first game we came out a bit slow and went back and forth with the other team until we finally pulled out the close 29-27 win. Did I mention we played by international rules so some things were different. For instance I couldn't serve and no back row subs could enter more than once. We came out a bit stronger at the start of the second game and ended up winning 25-18.

After the match we exchanged shirts with some of the Uniltalo players and we then hopped on the bus, took a short bus ride to another buffet style, meat serving restaurant, in which they bring the meat to the table and you say nao obrigada or sim obrigada (no thank you or yes thank you). We met a magician who had the best card tricks I have ever seen; in fact I am still stunned. Hope you enjoyed the day vicariously through me. - Nummy (Alyssa D'Errico)

May 13, 2009:

Today we woke up at 7:30 a.m. to play the semi-pro team, it was a mix of 18 to 25 years old women. We went 3-0 (25-23 25-21 25-23) and then decided to play another game and lost 22-25. All and all we went 3-1 and they were a pretty good team. Once we finished playing, we went straight to the mall to shop. It was a shopping center that was over four levels with about 400 stores, many of us ate at McDonald's, Burger King and Pizza Hut, but a few of us ventured away and ate the local food. I personally ate at Burger King; I needed a break. After spending four hours in the mall we then traveled to the airport where we had to leave our awesome bus driver and amazing tour guide. We got to the airport a little earlier than expected because we were all pooped from shopping that we showed up an hour early to leave the shopping center. We boarded the plane for Rio and it was a quick trip, like State College to Philly. Once we landed we grabbed our bags and were headed to dinner. Once again it was buffet style, but I feel like we have all tried everything at this point so there wasn't much pigging out. After dinner it was back to the hotel and a new twist on things, three people in a room, so it will be interesting trying to get ready in the morning. Tonight we are going out to talk with one on the Brazilian national players, Celine.

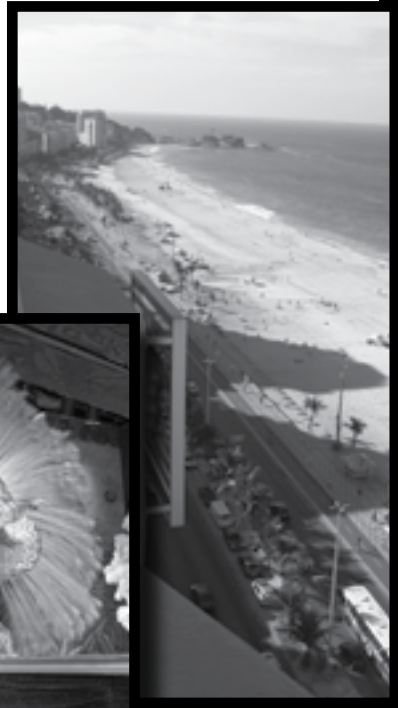
May 14, 2009:

After an amazing first night in Rio de Janeiro, we began our journey of sightseeing around 9:30 am. The first thing we did was visit to the largest metropolitan forest of them all. This forest is found on Corco Vado, which is a huge mountain. On top of this mountain is a famous statue, which stands 30 meters high, called The Christ Redeemer. The statue was built in 1931 and it overlooks this gorgeous city. In order to get to this enormous statue we had to take a train up to the very top of the mountain. The ride was not long but very relaxing. There were guys on the very first cart who were playing music and dancing. They were doing it for money and because it was something they seemed to enjoy doing.

When arrived to the top we got off the train and continued our journey toward The Christ Redeemer. If you decided to walk to the statue you had 250 flights of stairs to get there. But, if you waited in the long line for the elevator it would take you the 10 flights to get to the top. Most of us decided to enjoy the experience and take the stairs. On the way up was the most amazing view I and everyone else had seen since we arrived in Brazil. We were not only at the very top of this huge mountain, but we were overlooking the beautiful scenery of Rio de Janeiro. You better believe that tons of photos were taken of The Redeemer and of everyone's smiling faces.

After a breathtaking adventure at the top of this mountain we headed back down by train and loaded the bus. We were headed to lunch at noon and of course it was buffet-style eating. By 1:30 p.m. we were on our way back to the lovely hotel. We got back to the hotel at about 2 p.m. and we all decided to make our way to the beach. We changed out of our clothes and were on our way to get some sun. The beach is directly in front of our hotel so we walked over as a group, set up our chairs and towels and enjoyed the people, sun, and the pretty scenery. We ended up leaving around 4 p.m. and headed back to the hotel to get ready for dinner.



Dinner began at 7 p.m. We all cleaned up very nicely and loaded the bus. We arrived at a pizza place, where they had all types of pizzas - shrimp, meat lovers, veggie, mushroom and Brazilian sausage. For dessert we had chocolate covered with strawberries, chocolate covered with M&M's, banana covered with cinnamon all laid on thin crust. As you can image dinner was very fulfilling!

After dinner, we attended this amazing Brazilian show, by the name of Plata Forma. The show was interesting and entertaining. There was a lot of good Brazilian music and dancing by men and women. It reminded me of Las Vegas because of how colorful all the costumes were and boy did they sure know how to move!!

May 16, 2009:

It was a sad and rainy morning when we had to leave Rio. So far it was our favorite city, and we weren't sure it could get much better. We made the long bus trip to Saquarema. The bus was filled with sleepers and movie watchers. Jenna, our trainer, was on a mission to watch She's The Man. For those of you that aren't familiar with this movie, it's a youthful comedy where Amanda Bynes pretends to be her brother at his new school for two weeks while he's away in London. She tries to prove herself as a men's soccer player and falls for her roommate/teammate in the process. Needless to say, Coach was not thrilled about the selection and running as punishment was mentioned several times!

We sat down to a late lunch and then the afternoon was left to our own choice of beach exploring, relaxing in the courtyard, napping, or getting on the computer to keep in touch with the rest of the world. I sit in my room which is located right next to the pool and entrance to the beach where I can hear waves crashing and Brazilian music playing in the background, and I wonder how I could possibly feel more at ease. Moments like this make you realize how much of an opportunity this whole trip is. A thank you goes out to everyone who's had their hand in making it possible because experiencing this country the way that we have, meeting the people we've met, and sharing it with each other is something that we'll never forget.

Next we traveled to the training center. There weren't a lot of fans, but then again the gym wasn't really made to hold people as much as it was made to be set up for practice and training. From hitting warm ups you could tell that this team was an excitable bunch. They were young, fresh, and excited to finally be playing someone as opposed to training everyday. We squeaked out a win in game one not playing our best. Not playing our best turned to not playing well at all in the next two games. We would get small leads and a missed serve, errors on our part, or a really bad call to their advantage would allow them to catch up, take the lead, and win those games. We came back to win the fourth, not wanting to let them think we didn't come to play. A fifth and final game was played and we got down right off the bat just like in our Nebraska match. We were able to draw on that experience and make plays at the net and in the back-row to keep us in it. We eventually fought back for the win. We headed back to our hotel for a night of dinner, enjoying each other's company, and peaceful sleep. Signing off from Brazil...

May 19, 2009:

I'm going to start this off a little differently today and begin by thanking everyone that made this trip possible. I cannot express the gratitude we feel in being able to experience such a beautiful and kind culture that enables us to play the sport we love and find great competition (and great people to play against). To be able to spend this time with my teammates, coaches and members of the booster family only enhanced our adventures further and I could not have asked for a better group of people to join me in this great experience. This trip has been the chance of a lifetime, unforgettable and unbelievable, truly a dream come true for all those involved.

As gorgeous as Buzios was immediately, we only got a small taste of its beauty during our first night here. Today, we walked (everything is extremely convenient and in walking distance) to the pier to take a boat tour around the islands surrounding Buzios. Within minutes of boarding the boat it was a crowd favorite; the view was absolutely breathtaking in every direction. We continued to gasp at the sights of the mountains in the background and bask in the sunlight until we hit the next island. Closer to land than the previous stop, we decided to get a short workout in by swimming to the island. Five minutes later we all washed up on shore (a little worse for the wear), took the island by storm and claimed it as our own with pictures as proof. A few of the girls also snorkeled and saw "tropical fish" in the shallows. Needless to say, once the boat returned to the pier we were all trying to convince the captain to "accidentally" miss his mark with the rope so we could go on another loop around Buzios.

For dinner, we all found another buffet with an excellent assortment of fresh meats, made to order pastas, salads, fruits and even pizza. We sufficiently stuffed ourselves until we were ready for another night of shopping downtown for different Brazilian knick knacks to bring back for our loved ones (no spoilers!). We also found a place that made the largest chocolate crepes I have ever seen and everyone gathered around to try them out. I would highly recommend a chocolate crepe from Buzios if you ever find yourself here.

Now, sitting in the hotel after a long night of wandering from shop to shop, the girls sit around on their computers talking to parents or friends and challenge some of the coaches and boosters to card games. With only two days left in Brazil, everyone is starting to realize that this dream of a vacation is actually coming to an end. The experiences we have had the blessing to be a part of are once in a lifetime, and the opportunity to interact with such an incredible culture and see a beautiful part of the world was unimaginable. We cannot thank you enough.

May 20, 2009:

Today has been a very relaxing day. All of us girls woke up around 9:15 for breakfast and then left the hotel for the beach. On the way there, we got easily distracted and stopped in several shops along the way. Then, we went to a beach that was about a 15 minute walk from the hotel. It was a small, nice beach with a few restaurants right on the beach. After a couple hours of catching some rays we decided we better leave to make it to lunch on time.

Tonight we ate our last pizza dinner. Pizza has been one of the favorite meals here in Brazil, mainly because of the amazing desert pizzas they make here. It was a great last dinner to have in Brazil.

After dinner we all headed to one of our favorite places that makes delicious crepes (as if we didn't already have enough desert). All of us ordered different ones from banana and chocolate to ice cream and chocolate. This place is very fun because not only is there great dessert, but there is a DJ playing music, and there are ping pong tables and bean bags to sit in around some tables. It seemed as though Penn State had taken over the place because every where you looked, you would see someone from our group. After that, everyone headed back to the hotel to hang out before bed.

This trip has been a dream come true. There have been many times during this trip that I have talked with some of the girls and we discuss how lucky we are to have as much support as we have and been given an opportunity to broaden our horizons by experiencing another culture as beautiful as Brazil's. I will never forget this trip and how much fun I have been able to have with all my best friends.

May 21, 2009:

The end of the trip has finally come! We all woke slowly on Thursday and had a pretty laid back morning. It was very overcast, so most of us headed into downtown to do some last minute personal shopping, gift buying, and getting rid of any Brazilian money we had left burning holes in our pockets. A few of us treated ourselves to manicures and pedicures, and Katie took the risk of getting her hair cut from someone who didn't speak a word of English (but don't worry, it turned out great).

We met up for lunch at Boom, the same restaurant we ate lunch at our first afternoon in Buzios. The food (and more importantly the desserts) were just as fantastic as last time. After a quick lunch, we all headed back to the hotel to take a stab at packing all of our new and old belongings up one last time. It was tough, but just about all of us managed to shove our clothes and gifts into our suitcases (with the exception of Heather's rain stick and Jess's hammock). After stuffing everything into the bus, we started our bumpy trip back to Rio.

For dinner, some of us experienced Bob's Burgers for the first time, which is the burger chain created in Brazil by an American in the absence of McDonald's back in the early 1900's. At the gate, we parted with Nestor, our faithful tour guide. Nestor was a great addition to the trip as well, and we all appreciated his help and his insight into the Brazilian culture. There was plenty of time to kick back in the airport terminal while we awaited our flight. Once we boarded the plane, it was time to settle in and sleep our way back to the New York City.

This was such an incredible experience for every one of us. I don't think we can even begin to thank the Boosters and everyone who helped make all of this possible. Nothing can compare to the volleyball experience we got here and all the memorable times we had!

May 10, 2013: Hello from Slovenia!

Today, we played the Croatian National Team in Maribor, Slovenia and tied 2-2. The first game started off a little rocky, but maybe it was just nerves that got us at first. The second set, we gained a bit of confidence and proceeded to win into the fourth set. Unfortunately, we didn't win the fourth set, which definitely lit a fire under us to play them tomorrow. I feel we have the confidence to play better tomorrow in our next match against them because we know that we're capable.

After the match, we took quick showers and headed to dinner where we had a buffet of meats, salad, fries, and other native Slovenian foods. It was delicious! In order to get to dinner, we had to ride a gondola up and down this huge mountain-although it was a great view, I was pretty horrified, but definitely enjoyed the new experience after looking back at it all. Following dinner, we went on a little adventure to explore what was on top of the mountain. We came in contact with a spa and a creepy old-school church that looked like it hadn't been touched in years.

After all of the food, games, and exploring, we all headed back down the mountain via gondola (I wasn't as scared this time because it was dark) and went to the DraÅ› Hotel to get gelato-that was pure happiness. Now, it's time to head to bed and get ready for all the activities to come tomorrow.

Our first morning in Slovenia was a really exciting one! We started off with a team breakfast at 7:30 in the morning, then we had a practice--working on some serving and passing. After practice we all headed back to our apartments and got changed and headed up the mountain for a team challenge on a rope course. We all arrived at the bottom of the ski lift and got on the lift to go up the mountain to the course. The view from the lift and on top of the mountain overlooking Maribor was incredible! You could see all the city and the rest of the Pohorje mountain range from the top. Then the first thing we did was get in our harnesses and ready to go on the ropes! One thing we did was climb to the top of this telephone pole one at a time--it was really high!!

Then we had to stand on top of the pole and turn around and jump and our teammates would catch us (by pulling ropes on our harnesses). It was really scary and cool at the same time. Another thing we did was a giant swing thing (kind of) off the side of the mountain! It was scary, because we swung out over the trees. Which, interesting fact, Slovenia is home to over 400 brown bears...luckily we didn't see any in the forest. We had a nice lunch on the mountain then we got to take the alpine slide down. The alpine slide was like a one-man roller coaster down the side of the mountain. It was so much fun, you could get up to 25MPH!. After that we had a little time to ourselves to catch up on some sleep before the match. This trip has been amazing so far. We have got to see and do so many terrific things here. I want to thank all of you boosters for making this happen. This is a trip I will always remember fondly.

May 9, 2013 Hello to All!

I hope everyone is well back in the states. We're continuing on our great Europe adventure today as we arrived in Maribor. It is beautiful here, but slightly in the middle of nowhere. There is a training center right next to what appears to be a ski resort. There are beautiful mountains all around us and the sunset was breathtaking. When we arrived today we got off the bus, and we went straight into practice. The facilities are new and in great condition. We're happy to be in a beautiful place that has free wifi so we can talk to everyone back in the states. Hi mom and dad!

Earlier today we had a chance to sightsee around Vienna. It is absolutely my favorite place I've ever been. The city is set up in a loop-shape which makes it easy to navigate. Yesterday some of us walked around and saw the cathedrals, parliament, and castles. There were gorgeous parks with statues, fountains, flowers, and lush greens. This morning a group of us went to Schonbrunn Palace. This is where the emperor and his family would go to vacation. We felt very accomplished as we navigated the subway system and found our way there. The palace was gigantic with acres of land which included a zoo. Some of us took a grand tour of the palace which allowed us to tour the entire first floor. The chandeliers alone were works of art. Included in the tour was a hand-held audio-guide so we could get the inside scoop on what happened in each room. My personal favorite was the ballroom where Mozart performed when he was six years old for a large group of people. It was a true brush with fame. Other people took carriage rides around the grounds which had perfectly-manicured trees and bushes. It was truly so magnificent.

Tomorrow we have a full day planned! We are going to do a ropes course, and then an alpine slide down the steep mountain. I can say that's something I've never done before. Then in the afternoon we will play a match versus the Croatian National Team.

I want to make sure all the boosters know how grateful we are for being able to take this trip. It's definitely an once-in-a-lifetime experience to be able to travel with so many of your good friends. We are so lucky to have all of your support. I will cherish this trip forever. I look forward to seeing everyone and sharing more stories once we get back to the states. Ciao!

May 8, 2013: On To Vienna!

After a great time in Prague, it was finally time to start making our way to Vienna. A 9 a.m. we packed up the bus and began our four hour bus ride. As for the people who enjoy scenery, this is was beautiful ride down the coast of the Czech border and a fantastic photo opportunity. We saw everything from beautiful fields to architecture that is nothing but a fantasy in the states. And as for everyone else...the ride was the perfect nap time. About three hours into the trip we made a 20 minute pit stop. Turned out we stopped at a gift shop with cool European candy and souvenirs. I bought a Milka Chocolate Bar, a popular brand in Europe. After two more hours we finally made it to our destination, beautiful Vienna, Austria.

After checking into our rooms at the Marriott we had the opportunity to tour the city just about all day. It was great to see the different styles of architecture and the awesomeness of a new European city. Most of us walked out to the Parliament building and the historical castles that line the outskirts of the main ring. We took pictures then continued our journey to a park in the center of town.

After that, a few of the girls and I stopped at a cute little Austrian restaurant for lunch. It consisted of a typical meal with potatoes and some variation of meat. Although the language barrier was tough, it was nice to completely immerse ourselves in the culture. All in all, I consider Vienna a success. A new city always brings great opportunities to experience a new way if life.

Until next time,
- Ariel Scott

May 7, 2013: Checking in from Prague!

What an incredible experience! First of all, I just want to thank all of our boosters for your outstanding generosity in making this trip possible. We know none of us would be experiencing such a one-of-a-lifetime trip without you, and from the entire team we can't thank you enough! While we wish we could spend the trip with all of you, we hope our blogs and pictures will at least give you a taste of our travels. We miss you all!

This morning we started with another nice breakfast at the hotel, complete with about 17 different types of bread and pastries, Nutella, scrambled eggs, cold cuts, and caprese salad (mozzerella, tomatoes, basil, and olive oil)--which was a little bit of a mix-up for most of us. Our whole group then headed to the Charles Bridge, which is a very famous landmark for the Czech Republic, and connects the "Old Town" to the "New Town" of Prague. The view and the bridge itself were absolutely beautiful. Thankfully we were there early enough in the day that it wasn't too crowded, and we could meander about and check out all the statues as we pleased. Once we crossed the bridge, our tour guide took us to see the Old Town Square. There was a really neat Astronomical Clock there, which depicts the "Walk of the Apostles." We were told it is a very popular pickpocketing site, since at every hour all the tourists are focused on the moving figurines instead of their purses and wallets. Thankfully we made it without any incident!

We had a couple hours on our own after our tour of Old Town Square--some of us went shopping in the little shops, and some found other cool sites to see and take model-esque pictures in front of. :) I have to say I think my favorite part of the city was the cobblestone streets and roads everywhere. But we couldn't decide how in the world they could possibly plow for snow!

Later in the afternoon the team took the tram to the gym to warm up for our second match against the Praha Seniors. We traded games the whole match but ended up losing 15-13 in the fifth. It definitely wasn't the way we wanted to start the trip but it showed that we can't take the level of play here any less serious than the Big Ten, and we all need to step it up for our next matches.

After the match we all headed to the same restaurant from the first night for a traditional Czech meal. It started with a beef and potato stew, which was delicious and quite the crowd-pleaser. The main course was a really common Czech dish--goulash with dumplings. After we were all stuffed to the max, the dessert was three mini pancake-type cakes with a blueberry sauce. Carp informed us that blueberry pancakes are her favorite so needless to say she was in Heaven, and we all left with purple tongues.

Overall, another awesome day on an amazing trip. Again, thank you to all the boosters for your incredible support in making this all possible!

May 6, 2013

Known as the "City of a Thousand Spires" Prague has seen it all. Centuries of kings, classical composers, invading Nazis and Soviet tanks and now the Penn State women's volleyball team have all passed over Prague's cobblestones.

So on our stay, we saw the many Baroque churches, the royal palace, flagstone courtyards all in which lay within Prague's castle. In fact, this castle is the largest castle area in the world composing of 18 acres. All of the architecture and artwork is incredible and covered in detail. However nothing was quite like viewing Prague's romantic skyline, and view from on top of the hill (where the Castle sits) to the city below.

Of course, important to talk about is the food. It scarcely matters which place you select expect menus with staples of tender, seasoned pork, mildly sweet cabbage and soft dumplings to soak up the rich sauce. Desert favorites include crepes or dumplings filled with fruit.

As for the fun facts:

Did you know...

That Prague is known for being having some of the biggest beer drinkers? - Czech's drink more beer per capita than other country in the world and each head will sink about 43 gallons a year- dang!

During the Middle Ages turning minerals into gold was a hugely popular fashion among the elite. - The mark of ones status was magician- oooo ahhhh!!

Writers and academics have claimed to have felt strange and disturbing tremors coming from under the ground. - Dark alleys and desolate squares have been known to produce many eerie sounds.... Can you say ghosts??

And the first ever sugar cubes were made in 1841- yumm!

On behalf of the team, we would like to thank you boosters for sending us on the trip of a lifetime. We promise to work harder on the court to represent Penn State well and make you all proud.

May 5, 2013

Today was our first traveling day. The day started in an uproar as we scrambled around the locker room at 10 a.m. Just about all of us had over-packed and were struggling to get our bags under 50 pounds. Despite the hectic start we were all extremely excited. By 11 a.m., we were settled on the bus accompanied by boosters headed to Philly. The three-hour ride was very chill. We spent the time snacking, napping, jamming to music and talking about our hopes for Europe.

In Philly we headed to the gate boarding for Atlanta. As soon as we checked in we rushed to the food court. We ate giant ice cream cones but could only think about how much better the gelato in Europe was going to taste. We were loaded with no problem and within two hours the girls and I were in the Peach State. After waiting about an hour, we were boarding our flight to Amsterdam, making our trip officially international.

The plane was huge with three giant compartments and six stewardesses all dressed in bright blue. Each of their accents stuck out as they said hello to us as we boarded. All different types of languages were being spoken on the plane. Even the announcements came on in four different tongues. When we took off it was rainy and the skies were rough so the ride was bumpy. But even Lacey, who is not fond of flying, still made it through.

Eight hours and two airplane meals later the group was getting their passports stamped. I was amazed by the size of the airport, AMS being one of the biggest hubs in all of Europe. There were all kinds of shops, from Gucci to cigar shops. Because of a previous delay we didn't have much time to explore before starting the final leg of our trip.

As the crew got on our final plane to Prague we were all pooped. Flying above the countryside was breathtaking. The view of rolling hills and clusters of small towns was almost like flying over Happy Valley. The small jet got us to the Czech in two hours flat.

Even though the time spent getting to Prague was just the beginning of the trip it was also a time of bonding and memory making.

May 6, 2017:

After a full day of traveling, we arrived at our hotel in Sao Paulo and had a great lunch in the restaurant that included steak, pasta, seafood and so much more.

After lunch, we had time to get situated and prepare for our 5:30 p.m. match. We played Sao Caetano, which is a club team here in Brazil. To open the match, we exchanged gifts and gave Sao Caetano Penn State t-shirts and they gave us a huge box of tasty chocolates. It was a good match and we managed to win all four sets with the scores of 25-10, 25-16, 25-8, and 25-10.

After the game, we took a group picture with players on both teams and thanked them for hosting us. It was awesome seeing our team back in action playing some unfamiliar faces across the net.

For dinner, we went to the amazing Vivano Steakhouse. There was a huge salad and sushi bar and the waiters continuously brought out portions of meat or other foods to choose from. Not bad ending the day with some good ol' meat sweats! The restaurant was delicious and everyone had more than enough to eat.

Throughout the day, both players and coaches have slowly but surely been learning a few words in Portuguese to communicate with the locals.

We can't thank the Booster Club enough for these opportunities and can't wait to see what tomorrow has in store for us!

Thanks, Emily Sciorra #2

May 7, 2017:
Guess who's back, back, again? Carley Muller and Ali Frantti are back to tell you all about our trip!

The day began with another great breakfast in the hotel. We took a short bus tour through part of the enormous city of Sao Paulo and saw some amazing buildings and cathedrals along with different neighborhoods in the city.

Then we went to the Galeria Jose e Paulina Nemirovsky Arte Moderna - a modern art museum. It was cool to see different styles of art and learn about the history and the culture of Brazil. Needless to say, Haleigh Washington and Simone Lee were in their element.

It was a very cool experience to see the different styles of art and see some of Brazil's famous history. I (Frantti) know that a lot of my teammates were fascinated by the art sculptures, some even standing next to the sculptures mimicking their poses. Almeida Junior, a famous Brazilian artist, had many pieces in the museum and the most famous is called "The Longing" from 1899.

After another buffet lunch (with more tiny, strong coffee), we went to the Museu do Futebol and Memorial de America Latina. It was especially exciting for us seniors because this spring, Taylor Krause, Laura Broerman, and I (Carley) laced up our cleats and decided to play intramural soccer with our newfound free time. We learned pretty quickly that Laura, grass, and running don't mix well together after an injury during one of our games, so I'm actually not too sure how excited she was for the soccer museum...

The museum was inside the EstÃidio do Pacaembu, or the local soccer stadium, which was exciting to see in itself. As we toured the three-floor exhibit, we were able to learn all about the history of soccer as a whole, as well as Brazil's rich history with the beloved sport. When we entered, there were videos that allowed you to feel the energy of a live match in the stadium.

There was also a room that allowed you to feel the devastation that the entire country of Brazil felt when their soccer team lost in the finals of the 1950 World Cup by one goal to Uruguay. My personal favorite part was the room with pictures of things that happened in history from the years Brazil participated in the World Cup.

We capped the night off with watching Ohio State sweep BYU in the men's volleyball NCAA national championship match and cheered on our old director of operations Kevin Burch, (who is now an assistant coach at Ohio State) to his seventh consecutive NCAA national title! Congrats Burch!

Needless to say, I think what we all took away from today was that Brazil takes its soccer among other things, VERY seriously and that's just one of the many things that makes it such an amazing place.

We want to say "obrigado" or "thank you" to everyone who made this trip a reality and opened our eyes to this beautiful country.

Today in Brazil we got to truly experience the Brazilian culture by going to a fresh food market. My original thought when I heard that we were visiting a Brazilian food market was that it was going to be outside and almost take shape of our modern-day grocery store back in the United States.

Well I was wrong. The food market was held inside a stately building with window murals and it was quite beautiful. The market was filled with food such as fish, nuts, chocolate, meat and fruits. The team was particularly intrigued by just how generous each salesman was, especially at the fruit stations.

The language barrier wasn't easy, but with just a point, the salesman would begin to cut his delicious fruit and let us try them. Most of us came home with what fruits we liked the most, but some others came home with things like nuts or chocolates.

Not only did we enjoy their service but they enjoyed ours as well - literally, they were clapping at the fact that a large group of American girls were strolling through the aisles.

After the market, we headed back to the hotel and enjoyed a delicious lunch. Things such as salmon, soups and an array of fruits were so kindly offered. Although this could be a normal morning routine for a local citizen of Sao Paulo, the Penn State women's volleyball team got a delicious taste of the Brazilian culture today.

Thank you so much to those who made this trip possible!

ÂiBoa Noite!

After a FULL-filling day of trying chocolates and tropical fruit, the team packed up and headed to the gym.

Getting lost in the culture of Brazil, we made our way through the decorative small streets in our tour bus.

Upon arrival at the gym, instantaneous smiles spread throughout the team at the noise of excitement through the youthful group in the gym. About 60 middle school and high school aged kids were gathered, and after a quick demo of skills, smaller groups were formed.

A fun-filled hour of volleyball rallying and an attempt at conversation with the Portuguese-speaking students soon unfolded. It was hard not to smile when your group was so excited to play volleyball with you.

Once the hour was up, we quickly put our gear on and began warming up for our match against Sesi Sao Paulo. The lights in the gym were not working so, we were challenged with getting three sets in before the sun went down.

They were a competitive three sets, with Penn State winning the first and last set. The multicolored ball was in our favor in both the daylight of the gym and after sundown!

After shaking hands, almost completely dark in the gym now, we exchanged shirts with the other team in return for their authentic Brazilian jerseys. We took pictures with the girls and all the kids from the clinic who filled the stands to watch the game.

Concluding the night, we shared a meal amongst conversation (and again nearly in the dark).The girls from the opposing team were genuinely kind and it was amazing to share experiences of our journeys through the game of volleyball.

Thank you to all those who have helped the team get to Brazil, whether in funding or support, because tonight was a match I will hold fondly in my memories of this beautiful country and amazing sport.

Hi, this is Simone!

Reporting from day 10 in Rio de Janero!
Today was absolutely incredible. Not only were we able to spend a fair amount of time outside, we also went to two beautiful places, the Christ the Redeemer statue and the Sugarloaf Mountains. My favorite part of the trip was seeing the Sugarloaf Mountains! (No, there was not sugar on these mountains).

These mountains are named "Sugarloaf" because they were discovered during the peak of sugar cane trade in Brazil. We rode in glass cable cars that run along a 4,600-foot route. The views were incredible, however being afraid of heights I was glad to have my teammates there with me! Looking down from the cable cars you could see everything from the airports to beaches and even our hotel!

It was such a great experience taking pictures from the top of the mountains and pointing out even more cool places from below! I know the team had a great time taking the tour of the sugarloaf mountains and it was an experience that will last a lifetime!

We are all so fortunate to have been able to take this trip and experience it with such great friends, coaches and boosters. We want to thank the boosters for all of their support in organizing this trip and helping make this once and a lifetime trip a reality!

Signing off from Brazil,
Simone Lee
